

Look, Milo is already awake, but Lily is fast asleep.
It's still very early in the morning.
Today is a very special day
because it's Lily's birthday!
Later today they'll have a birthday party.
Milo can hardly wait.
He gets out of bed
without waking Lily.

Milo gets dressed quickly and quietly goes downstairs. He wants to surprise Lily and is going to decorate the house. Decorations are an important part of throwing a party.

Milo finds a green and red Christmas garland, a string of brightly-colored flags, and two big balloons. Which decorations are right for Lily's birthday party?
