

Mommy Squirrel has a very big belly.
There's a baby squirrel inside.
Squirrel helps Mommy with preparing the crib
and the baby supplies.

"Mommy?" Squirrel asks. "Soon, when the baby comes,
will you still think that I'm sweet?"
"Of course," Mommy says. "You and the baby are both the sweetest."

The next morning, Daddy enters Squirrel's room.
"Congratulations, big sister!" he shouts happily. "You've got a little sister."
Squirrel jumps out of bed and runs to Mommy and the baby.
"She's so tiny," Squirrel says. "And pretty," Daddy beams.

"Do you think Baby Squirrel is prettier than me?" Squirrel asks.
"Of course not," Daddy says.
"You and the baby are both the prettiest."
