When Sofia lies in bed at night and closes her eyes, something magical happens: everything she imagines becomes real! One time, Sofia made up a story about being a princess in a beautiful castle. Another time, she was a brave pirate on a sea with waves as high as the walls. TONIGHT, SOFIA IS A WIZARD!

"Hocus-pocus . . ." she murmurs.

"HEY PRESTO!"
Suddenly, Sofia is in a real magic class. She looks around curiously.
The walls are full of magic formulas.
A pile of dusty old books sits on her desk.
And next to her sits Adam, her best friend.
Stars sparkle in his eyes as he smiles at her.
But all of a sudden, a loud roar sounds through the classroom.
