

Bedtime! It's late. Lily and Milo are going to sleep. Lily is already in bed. She's completely ready. And Milo . . . is he ready to sleep?

No, not yet! Milo still has to get undressed. What does he put on to go to sleep? A thick sweater and a warm hat? His rain boots perhaps? Or will he choose the pajamas with the blue stripes?

Look, Milo has put on his pajamas.
Now Lily and Milo can go to sleep. Right?

No! Milo has to brush his teeth first.
How does he do that?
With the hairbrush and the ointment from the blue jar?
With toothpaste and a toothbrush?
Or with the soap in the pink pump?
