

It's a beautiful spring day.
The sun is shining, and the apple tree is full of blossoms.
Owl and Raccoon are playing outside with a ball.
Raccoon throws the ball to Owl.
But, oh dear, the ball gets stuck up in the branches.

Can you help us get the ball out of the tree?

Shake the book back and forth a little bit,
and then turn the page.

It worked!
The ball fell out.

“Raccoon, Owl, come and see! Last night,
little lambs were born,” calls Mouse.
