

Lily and Milo are going on vacation.
They're going camping!
They need a lot of camping equipment.
But how will they take all those things
with them?

Lily and Milo see a red suitcase with polka dots,
a beautiful handbag, and a blue wagon.
What will Lily pick? And what will Milo choose?

Lily thinks the handbag is far too small.
But the wagon is big enough for lots of heavy things.
Milo chooses the suitcase.
It holds many camping things.
That's convenient!

Lily and Milo are going camping in a tent.
Lily knows the tent is in the big brown bag.
They also find a big rubber hammer and a rope.
Do Lily and Milo need all those things?
