The vacation feeling can be brought home. This is easy when you think in colors. With light sand tones, for example, a wicker side table, large color prints of your own vacation photos, and lots of yellow, you can bring the sun inside, even in the evening. This way, you can feel like you are on vacation in your own home every day.

NEW SEVENTIES

A conversation pit from the 70s, with rugs and cushions and lots of ceramics. Featuring the soft, round shapes used by the provos and hippies back then to rebel against the previous generation. Yet, this interior feels brand new. The fabrics, pastel tones, waves, checkers, and blocks are all completely contemporary.
