

Er is geen weg naar geluk, geluk is de weg.

Laat komen wat komt. Laat gaan wat gaat.

Zie wat overblijft.

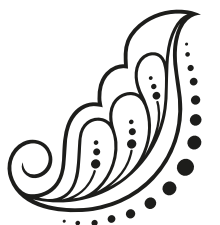

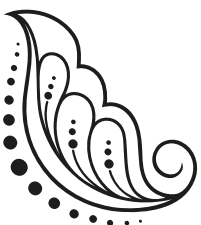

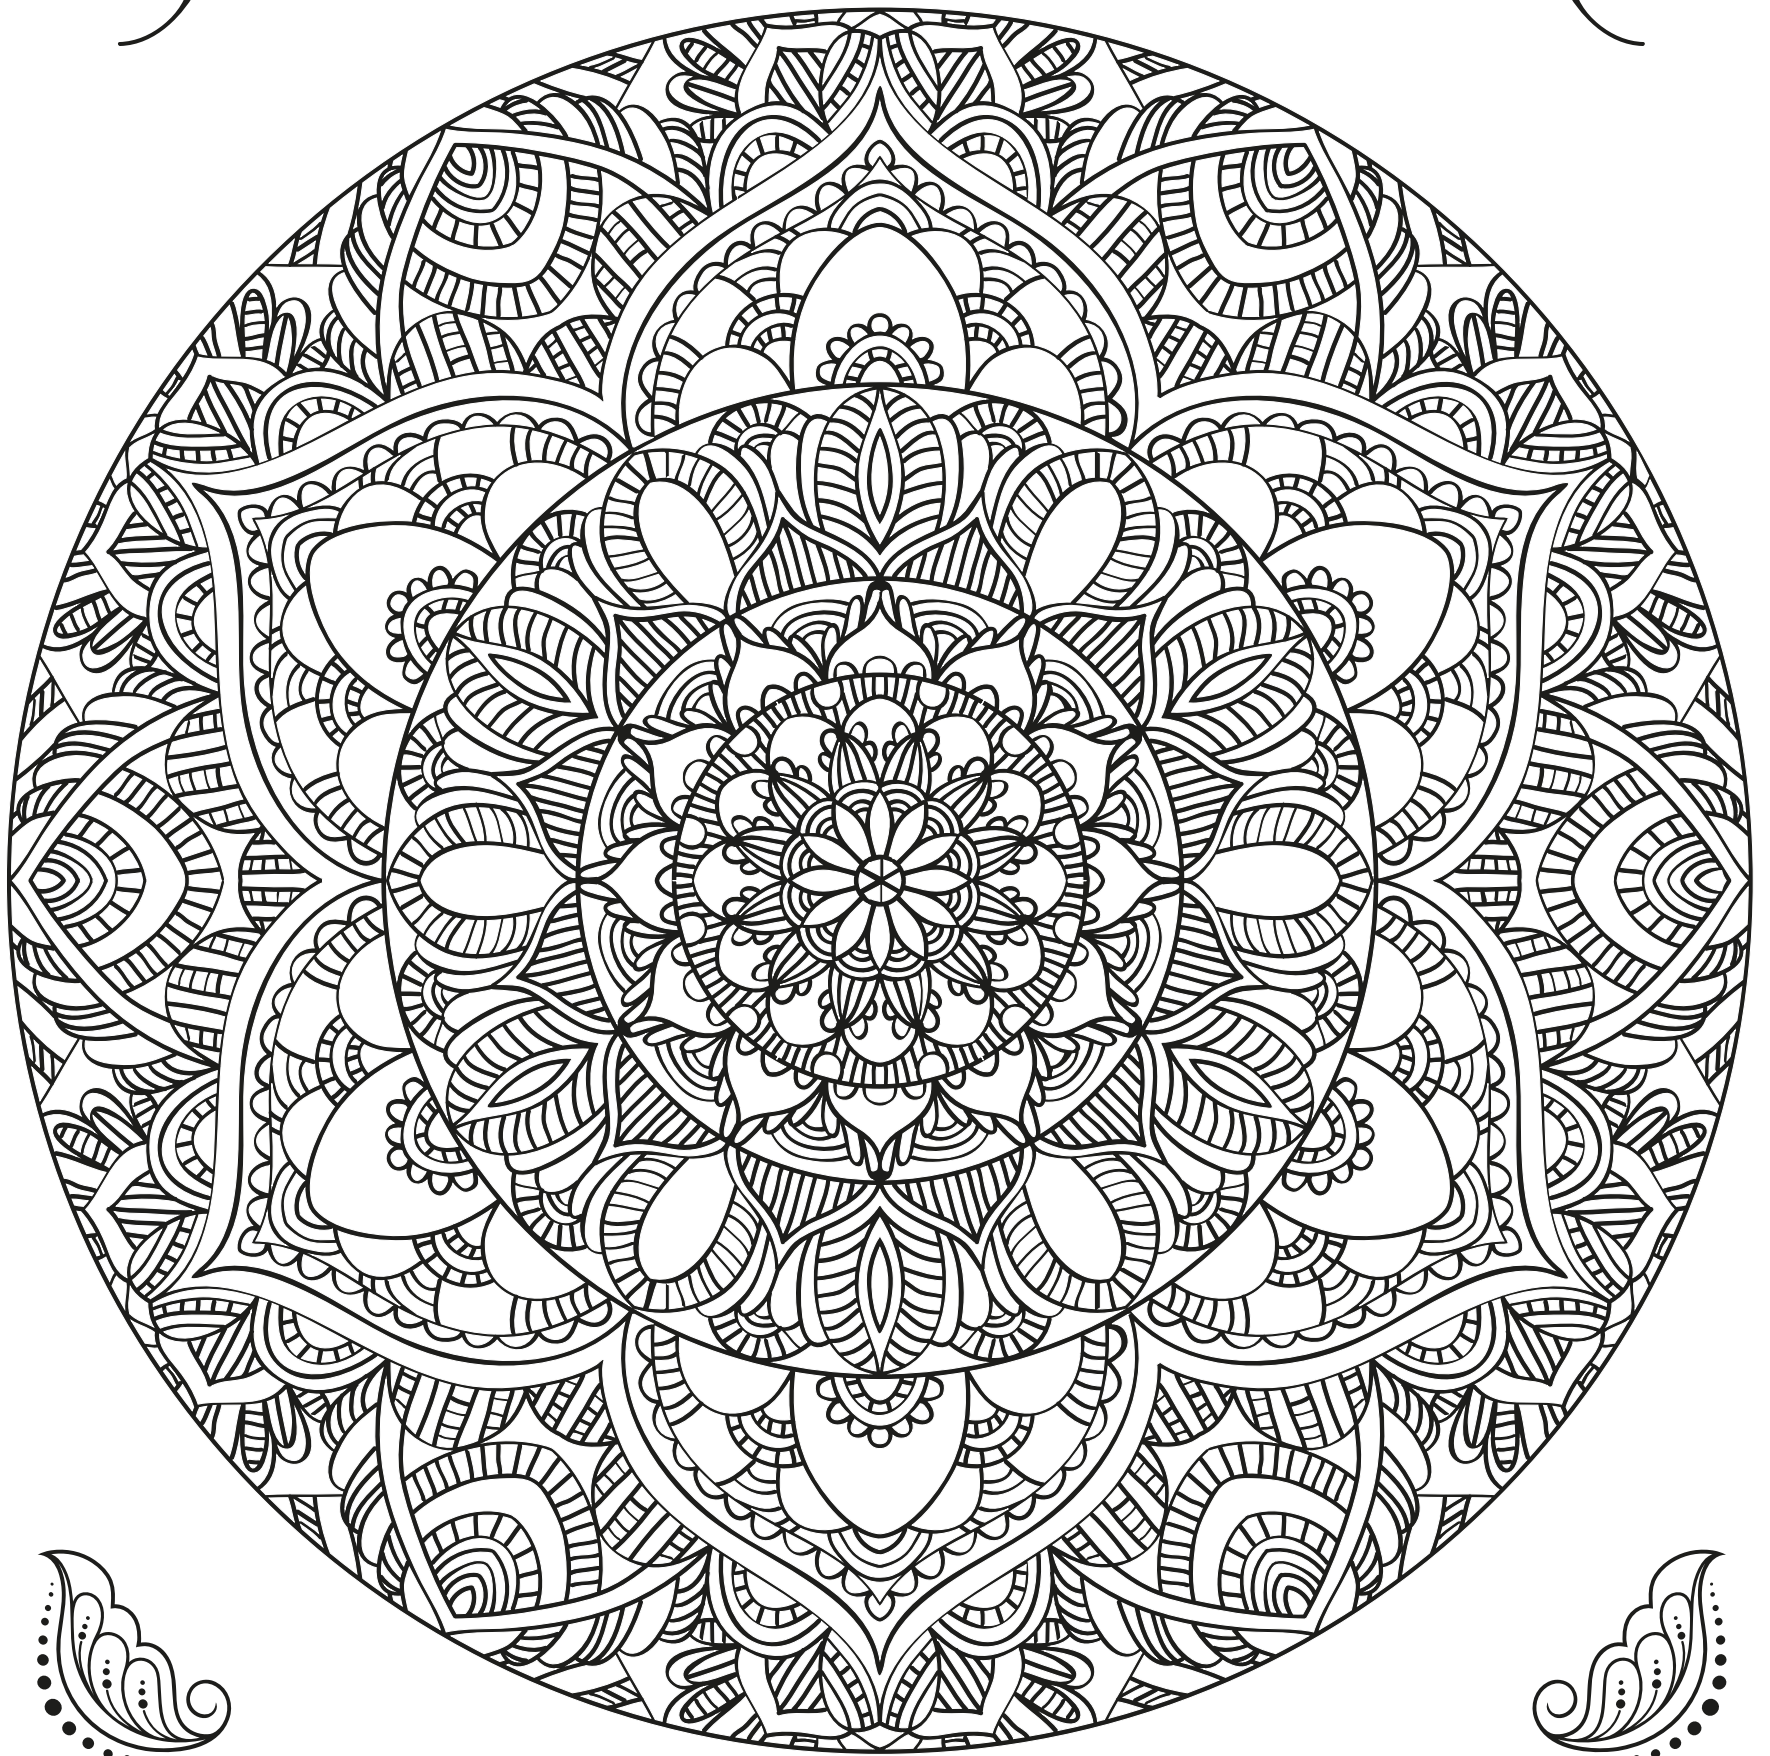

Ook een reis
van duizend mijl begint met de eerste stap.

BOEDDHA

A detailed black and white line drawing of a mandala. The design is highly symmetrical and intricate, featuring multiple layers of floral and geometric patterns. At the center is a circular frame containing a quote. The quote is written in a serif font. Below the quote, the name 'SUN TZU' is written in a smaller, sans-serif font, flanked by decorative flourishes. The entire mandala is composed of various shapes, including teardrop forms, circles, and floral motifs, all rendered in a consistent line-art style.

Wie zichzelf kent,
