Your Daily Male 2024: Elke dag een nieuwe man!

In dit jaar zullen we vele nieuwe gezichten zien. Er zijn o.a. verkiezingen in de Verenigde Staten en we weten ook nog niet welke nieuwe gezichten de politiek in Nederland zullen gaan bepalen.

Maar in een aantal landen bepalen nieuwe gezichten een stringenter beleid ten opzichte van LHBTIQ+ rechten. We moeten daar ten zeerste voor waken en zichtbaar blijven strijden voor onze rechten met onze gezichten.

Lhbt-projecten

Waarom ze dat te danken hebben? 'Klimaatverandering', zegt Ljudmilla's zoon Robert (58), die op een droog kluitje de wacht houdt voor de oprit van zijn moeder en foetert voor iedereen die het horen wil. 'Klimaatverandering, en de regering die deze regio totaal verwaarloosd heeft. Al jaren smeken we om betere wegen, maar in plaats van te investeren in infrastructuur geeft de (linkse) regering miljoenen uit aan lhbt-projecten of weet ik waar ze nog meer in (hoofdstad) Ljubljana mee bezig zijn. Horen wij niet meer bij Slovenië of zo?'

Een opvallende opmerking stond in één van de artikelen over de overstromingen in Slovenië in augustus 2023.

Soortgelijke berichten zien we de laatste tijd wel vaker, helaas.

In deze editie van Your Daily Male zijn ook weer werken van een aantal nieuwe kunstenaars opgenomen. Fraaie gezichten uit de kunstwerken van de deelnemende kunstenaars sieren de omslag van de negende editie van Your Daily Male.

Your Daily Male 2024: Every day a new man!

In this year we will see many new faces. There are elections in the United States, among other things, and we do not yet know which new faces will determine politics in the Netherlands.

But in a number of countries, new faces determine stricter policies with regard to LHBTIQ+ rights. We must be very careful about this and continue to visibly fight for our rights with our faces.

Lgbt projects

To what do they owe that? 'Climate change', says Ljudmilla's son Robert (58), who stands guard in a dry clod in front of his mother's driveway and grumbles for anyone who will listen. "Climate change, and the government that has totally neglected this region. For years we have been begging for better roads, but instead of investing in infrastructure, the (left-wing) government spends millions on lhbt projects or I know what else they are doing in (capital) Ljubljana. Don't we belong to Slovenia anymore or something?"

A striking comment was made in one of the articles about the floods in Slovenia in August 2023.

We've seen similar messages more often lately, unfortunately.

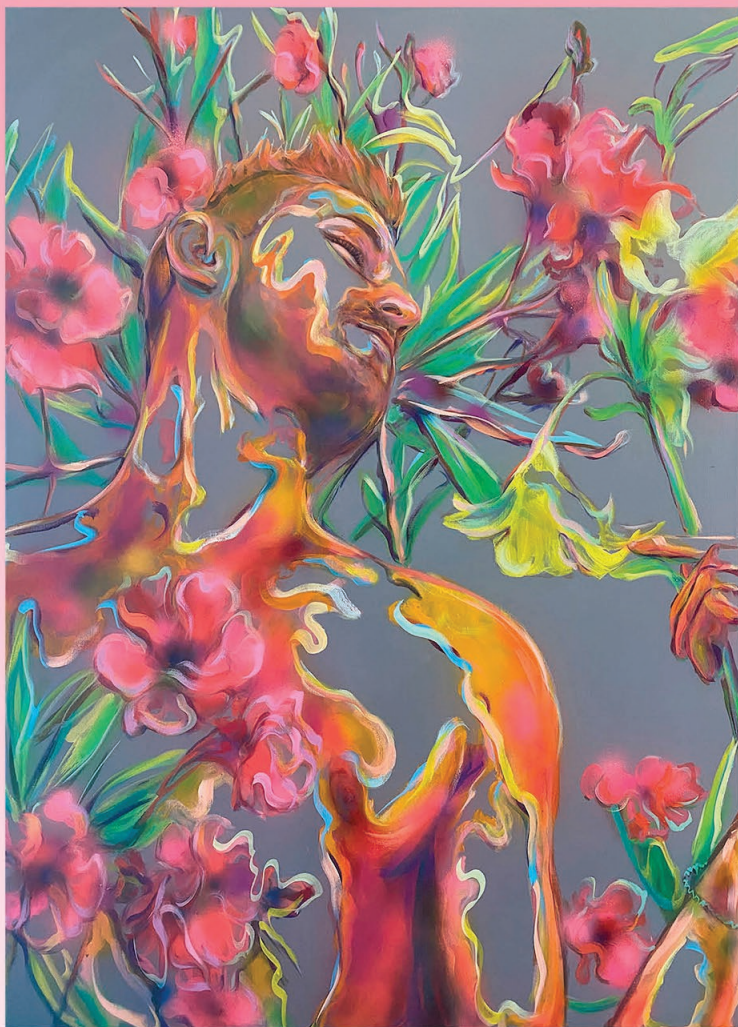

This edition of Your Daily Male also includes works by a number of new artists. Beautiful faces from the artworks of the participating artists adorn the cover of the ninth edition of Your Daily Male.

A crusty middle finger as a contribution and celebration of senselessness and absurdity.

Along with the diptych (see XXXXX), showing the expression of a 'gun' the sculpture plays with one of the simple, yet powerful symbols.
