

THE NETHERLAND: ART GALLERY UNDER THE SKY

In the Netherlands the Art Gallery is always in sight, always nearby. You can see and appreciate art works without entrance tickets. They can be seen every day on the way to work or home, heading to school or to friends. These works of art are able to look different in any weather, in the sun and in the rain. They can weather any storm.

Art works of Gallery are located ... at a distance of many kilometers from each other. At least one in every Dutch city. Such an art tradition.

We understand that it is not easy to travel tens and even hundreds of kilometers across the Netherlands to see these absolute works of creative thought. This book, you hold in your hands now, will help you do just that. Enjoy! To be surprised! It is very interesting!

The Dutch have long decorated their space with paintings, sculptures and intricate household items. Museums keep history. Contemporary Art in the Netherlands delights, surprises, entertains and even disciplines everywhere. The Art lives among people. The Dutch make decisions and erect sculptures, art objects at the expense of municipalities and maintain them in a presentable form. These works of art every day remind people that in addition to their daily worries, there is a world of bright creative imagination that gives joy.

EU Carte Blanche Team