Introduction

This is a story about a man who always knew that he wanted one thing in his life. And he did everything in his power to get it.

Sometimes, one person can change the world. Or someone's life. And that's the most important thing someone can do.

Before you start reading; step out of your own world. Look further than your own horizon. Get ready to dive into someone else's thoughts. These thoughts will take you on a journey. After you've read this book, you may see that you've learned something from it. Or even more than one thing.

So please read this. And share the love.
