The chicken and the golden egg.

There was once a farmer, who had ten chickens and a rooster.

There were nine of those ten chickens that laid eggs every day and one chicken that never had laid an egg before.

One day the farmer said to his wife, I think I'm going to sell that chicken Saturday on the market.

To which his wife replied that is good hubby because they do not lay eggs.

That Saturday was the farmer all woke up early to prepare for the market.

The farmer was to have breakfast with his wife until she heard a lot of clucking at some point in the chicken coop.

He went along with his wife, and they looked at each other surprised, because the chicken that he wanted to go sell that Saturday had an egg is laid.
