

1	I was standing at the edge of a steep cliff	2
2	One night the death came to me and he said:	4
3	Love has many faces	6
4	We walked together in the streets of loneliness	8
5	Please, give me some of your tears	9
6	Today it was a rainy day	11
7	A warrior in spiritual warfare will never be angry	13
8	Hey... Psst... Hey.. You....	14
9	NEW YORK, Manhattan....	16
10	Today it was a rainy day	18
11	LAS VEGAS	20
12	In an ancient forest lived a painter	23
13	One night the devil visited me in my dreams	25
14	I was hit by a truck in the darkest hour of the night	27
15	Psst..... Hey.....Hey, you there	29
16	I was walking along a silent beach	32
17	My father was a strong and healthy man	35
18	I can hear you, I can hear you, I can hear you,	37
19	Touch me tender, touch me tight with your soft and tender arms	39
20	A warrior in spiritual warfare will never be angry	40
21	People crashing down alone	41
22	When we are young an innocent	43
23	A twelve-year-old boy was diagnosed brain cancer.	45
24	A young girl at the age of shining beauty	47
25	So many people, so many answers, so many lies.....	49
26	The Masterpiece	52
27	Psst. Pssst..... Hey.... Hey you there,	54
28	We knew each other already for so many years	57
29	I met a girl and she said to me	58
30	I met you in an ancient dream	62
31	I have a friend. He is a poet just like me.	64
32	That day the darkness was broken	66
33	You believe that you know me	67
34	I was walking up the hill at a hot and cloudless summer day....	68
35	I have no mercy with the winners	70
36	I do not believe in a "Merry Christmas"	71
37	Clouds of darkness	73
38	I saw a darkness coming to the earth	76
39	They fell for each other like falling birds in love.....	78
40	I saw a girl in an ancient forest	82
41	An old man, tired of life,	84
42	I have a friend and he is a poet like me	85
43	We walked together along a sunny beach	87
44	I met a boy and he called me his best friend	89
45	A young beautiful girl was hit by the merciless hardness of life	91
46	Three men were walking through the forest.	93
47	I was walking along a silent beach	96
48	I love Mr. Nobody	99
49	One night the devil visited me in my dreams	102
50	I met the Preacher at a rainy day	104
51	I was thrown into the deepest darkness	106
52	I saw you and I was touched by you.	108
53	Today it was a rainy day	110
54	A poet visited a village	112
55	A train arrived at a platform	114

56	I love you, I love you, I love you	116
57	When we are young an innocent	118
58	I believe in the power of love	120
59	God of MERCY	123
60	We knew each other already for so many years	125
61	When you are alone and you are climbing high on the cliffs surrounded by darkness	126
62	Remember the six lies of the evil world	128
63	I met you in the shadow of a crowd	127
64	In silence and deepest sadness	129
65	You said to me a shy “hello”	130
66	I feel like a stranger, alone in this world	132
67	I want to write my name on all the subway halls	133

I was standing at the edge of a steep cliff
Looking down into the darkness
And the storm hit me in my face
And the hail ripped open my heart

I was all alone in the storm
And darkness surrounded my soul
Witchcraft and evil attacked without mercy
And try to push me over the edge

Whispering lies that nobody loved me
And never and ever will love
Breaking my soul with the power of their spells
Breaking my will with their lies

I heard their voices deep in my heart
I felt their hate surrounding me and making me blind
A world without mercy a world without love
A world in destruction that is all I could see

All alone in the storm
All alone in the night
All alone standing surrounded by hate
All alone leaving this world

And in that deep darkness
You called me by my name
A heard your voice so much stronger than he storm

Your voice so much stronger than he hate

You blew away the darkness
You blew away the storm
You blew away the witchcraft
The hate, the evil the lies and the spells

You told me you loved me
And always will love me
And never will leave me alone
You promised to stand by me for ever into eternity

And we walked back together
Away from the storm
Brought me back to my home
Brought me back to my safety

And shy I repeated your name
God of Love
God of wonder
God of power, God of beauty and eternal Love

And I know now you will never leave
And no darkness will ever dare to come near
Because with God in my heart
I feel loved and protected
And you gave me eternal life

Because you are love I have always looked for
You are love in the most powerful way
You are Love and give us a world of wonder and beauty
You are love, ONLY LOVE....

One night the death came to me and he said:
Give me your life
And I said to him
Why would I give my life to you....

And he said: When you give me your life
I will give you everything what you want
I will give you power
I will give you strength....

I will give you all the money of the world
I will give you an army to fight for you
I will give you an empire to serve you and to honor you
But I could never say: Yes....

What can I do with all the money of the world
When I am dead I cannot take it with me
What can I do with an army to serve me when I am dead
What is the use of an army fighting for a dead one....

And the death said to me: I will give you fame. At every large square your statue will arise
Every large street will be named after you. Thousands of books will write down your name
Your name will be remembered for thousands of years
But I could only say: Never....

Why would I care about a statue when I am dead
Why would I care about streets named after me when I am dead
When I am dead I will read no more books
And who cares who remembers me when I am dead....

And the death said to me: But what do you want?
What do you care about. Isn't there anything important to you?
Don't you care at all?
And I said. Oh yes: I do care about so many....

I care about friendship.
I care about tenderness.
I care about a warm beating heart of a friend
But most of all: I do care about love....

Then the death became quiet.
The death couldn't give me that.
I saw the loneliness of his empty heart.
He could only take a life but he could never give it back....

And I felt mercy with the death
And I gave him my friendship for free
I gave him my tenderness for free
I gave with a warm beating heart the death my love for free....

Disappointed the death walked away from me.
I saw my gifts falling out of his empty heart.
Because the death could only take and the death could never give
Lonely the death walked away into the emptiness of his lonely empty heart .....

Love has many faces

In a small town lived a beautiful young man with gorgeous long and thick golden hair and beautiful shiny blue eyes. All the girls in the street fell in love with him and he was so very attractive that also all the boys in the street fell in love with him. Also the boys and the girls from the other streets started to know him and they fell in love too.

In the beginning he liked it but soon he got bored. He slept with all the boys and all the girls in town and at the end he became totally bored. They really loved him but he became mean to them and treated them badly. When he met them the day after they spend the night together, he said to them: Do I know you? Who are you?? And then they got really hurt.

His soul became dark and fragile because of all the pain he caused to the other people. One night, there was a thick heavy mist in town and it was very dark. He just left a café and at the corner of the street there was an old gipsy woman standing. She was shivering from the freezing cold. She asked him for a penny to buy some food. He looked at the woman and he saw how old and how ugly the woman was. Her face was totally wrinkled, she smelled terribly, her hair was thin, grey and very filthy, she had a large nose and she was missing several teeth. She was wearing worn out clothes that smelled terribly. She really looked like an old and ugly witch. He wanted to move on as fast as possible. But she took him by the arm and asked him again: “please, please, one penny to buy some food”. He looked in his pocket and he had only a 10 dollar bill. To get rid of her he gave her the ten dollar bill and moved on as fast as he could.

I happened that night that the old gipsy woman froze to death and the beautiful young man got hit by a car and died on the street the same night. Because of the darkness and the mist, the driver had not seen him.

The space you enter when you die is nor heaven nor hell. It is an in between world. And friends have to come and pick you up to bring you save to heaven. Else the demons will grab you and drag you to their hell. The old gipsy lady had many friends, because she was always very generous to other people. She was taken away soon and was brought save to heaven by her friends . But the beautiful young man had no friends at all. He was waiting there, but nobody came. The demons noticed him and they came closer and closer to him and were ready to drag him to their hell.

The old gipsy lady could feel that the nice young man who gave her the ten dollar was dead and she was very surprised that nobody came to pick up the nice young man. Then she decided to go and to pick him up and save him from the demons. The beautiful young man was totally surprised how beautiful the old gipsy lady looked in the spiritual world. She looked gorgeous. And the old gipsy lady was disappointed that the beautiful young man looked so ugly in the spiritual world. But love makes blind and the old gipsy lady really loved him. And he loved her when he saw how beautiful she was in the spiritual world. They both fell in love and she became the first woman he really loved. And together they walked into heaven.

Ibelieve Onlyinlove,

We walked together in the streets of loneliness
We walked together in silence on that rainy day
I brought you to the station
To say to you good bye....

I asked you for a kiss before you would leave
And you said to me:
“But don’t you know that my kiss would kill you”
I did not believe you and I asked again....

Before you got in the train, you kissed me with your magical power of beauty....
The train doors closed and you moved away
And then I knew that you would never come back and I felt that your kiss had really killed me....

Please, give me some of your tears
Please give me some of your heart
Please give me some of your pain
Please give me some of your loneliness

Your heart is shining bright in the shadows of the night
the bright lights of the pain
The burning lights of the loneliness
And he crying lights of your bleeding heart

I see you standing in the night when I look up high into the sky
I see you as a star bright shining your pain from so far
Shadows of darkness covering your soul
I see you shining so high, you the bright star of the death

I can feel your pain
I can feel your heart
I can feel your loss
I can feel you so alone

Shining high in clouds of darkness in the sky
Shining so bright your pain into the world
Shining your tears so high in the sky
Shining your light from so far

Wherever I go I miss you the most
Wherever I escape, I can feel you shining in pain
You are the brightest light
In the darkness all around

Now I am standing at your grave
I can see you so clear
I can feel you so bright
I can feel you so near

You died too quick
You died too slow
I could not understand that you were gone
Because I could still feel you so strong

I still feel your love
I still feel your warmth
I still feel your warm loving hugs
I still feel the warm tender touch of your laugh

Yes you are dead, suddenly gone
you were so near
You were so close
I can still feel you in my heart

Please come back to me
And rise from the grave
Come into my heart
And shine like the star of pain

Shine into my soul
Shine into my heart
Shine the pain you feel
Shine into my broken heart

I cried that night, please do not go
I cannot live without your love
I cannot live without your soul
I cannot live without your pain

I remember the tenderness of your loving words
I remember the time that we were one
I remember the time so close and so near
I remember a time that will never come back

Please rise from the grave
And shine like a star
Shine Into the darkness of the night
Shine into my broken heart

I will be the moon high in the sky
A moon red as blood
Shining in pain, shining in tears
A moon so alone, waiting for the bright lights of his star

And high in the sky I will open my heart
And ask you to shine forever you warm loving heart
Deep into me, deep into my soul
Shine into love, the brightest light of all.

Today it was a rainy day
A day with the clouds low and grey
A kind of a funeral day
And I remember my father who passed away when I was still too young....

I remembered him, the hippy from the sixties
The man who never wanted to get old
With his heart full of love and his hair so wild and long
He challenged death on his old rusty motorbike....

And death caught him on his motorbike
He died too young with his heart full of love
I heard the heartbreaking news
And I was left in silence....

His inheritance for me were his records from that time
Names forgotten in the silence and the shadows of the past
And on the rainy silent days I play them
And I feel the love of the generation of his time....

I feel the love of the hippies and the passion of their time
The flower power and the music breaking through the walls of convention
Their so long forgotten dreams
They disappeared in the silence and the shadows of the past....

And now I look around
And I am crying for the dreams
The dreams of love, the dreams of passion of the past
Where did they go, please beautiful dream, please come back....

I look around
And I see the evil won
I see War and I see the starving children
I see endless rows of refugees left behind in the silence of the mud....

Please come back my beautiful dreams
Please come back generation of the past
Please stand up from your graves
And let us hear your music, your music of the passion and the love....

Let us forget ourselves
Let us forget our greed
Let us forget our anger and our fear
Let us dance with you on the music of your time....

Let us dance with you into your graves
And make us feel your love
Make us feel your passion
Tell us that your music did not die....

Make us happy
Make us love
Give us back your innocence
Give us back your music from your heart....

Make us strong and let us fight
To break the walls of convention
Break our greed and our fear with the power of your time
And that the love will rule the world and nobody will be more and nobody will be less.....

A warrior in spiritual warfare will never be angry
Because hate is the fire in the soul that kills the love
A fire that will make you weak
A fire that will make you helpless....

A spiritual warrior will never take revenge
Because revenge is the spiderweb of the chains of darkness
A spiderweb that will tie you down in weakness
A spiderweb that will capture you in the claws of your enemies in the dark worlds of evil....

A warrior in spiritual warfare
Is a warrior in the war between HATE and LOVE
And he will only forgive his enemies
And he will only love his enemies with all the power he has....

Because only he knows the POWER OF FORGIVENESS
Because only he knows the POWER OF LOVE
And only he knows that his road
Will be a Winding Long and Lonely road....

A road with a meaning that goes straight through the deserts of darkness
A road with a destiny that is surrounded by the swamps of doubt
A road that at the very end, while the world is burning in pain and war, will heal the world
A road that will save the world out of the claws of darkness with the POWER OF ETERNAL LOVE....
