Expression of thanks

A book release is never the work of a single person, so it's time to thank everyone who made it possible for me to create my second publication.

My special thanks go to my friend and mentor Marcel Claus, sponsor for art and literature, who with his inexhaustible fund of inspiration and motivation has always steered me into new spheres.

Thanks also to my family, who provided every possible support for this work in all phases.

I dedicate this book to the reason for all Being the one from whom we come and to whom we come to return, the source of wisdom and light of all lights, the creator, innovator and keeper All things.
May this book by mine
Hearts come to all who read it.

Introduction

In the name of God the Most Gracious
Merciful

All praise is from Allah, who made praise the price of his blessings, a refuge before his visitation, a way to his paradise gardens and means of multiplication of the good that he gives us. Blessings be upon the Messenger, the Prophet of Mercy, the Imam of the Imams, the lamp for the Umma, the chosen glory from the origin of honor and the family glory, the implantation of the firmly rooted glory, the branch of sublimity full of fruits and leaves. (Blessings) on his Ahl-ul-Bait, the lights in the dark, the protection of the communities, the clear beacons of religion, the vast majority of virtue. May Allah bless them all, and the blessing be for their virtues, reward for their deeds and correspondence for the purity of their descent as long as dawn is shining and the stars are rising and setting.

The knowledge of Ali ibn Abu-Talib (a.)

The knowledge of Ali ibn Abu-Talib (a.) Came from the "Crown of Creation", the Prophet Muhammad (s.), And Imam Ali (a.)
Was the gateway to that knowledge.

The Prophet (see below) was taught by Allah's command of the "mighty (schadidul-quwa)", that is, by Allah Himself. In this regard, he has come to the core of both the unity of Allah (tauhid) and creation, he was the educator of the world, the crown of creation, he who analyzed and explained causes and effects.

Mevlana Jalaladdin Rumi put it this way:
"The path of those who follow intuition is made of wood; and if wood is the way, then it is a wooden way ", however, knowledge is not based on intuition, but on certainty (yaqin), then Rumi expresses it as follows:" Learn from Ali the purification (ichlas) and works, know that the Lion of Truth is pure of cunning and deception.

Because you are the gateway to the city of knowledge, oh Ali, because you are the radiance of the sun

Long-suffering, O Gate of Mercy, remain open to all eternity, to our audience of whom no one is like. In terms of courage you are the lion of God, in terms of your bravery, who knows who you are? "

His life

Imam Ali (a.), Son of Abu Talib, is the cousin of Prophet Muhammad (s.), His son-in-law, executor, first imam of the twelve imams and fourth caliph.

According to most traditions, Imam Ali (a.) Was born on Friday the 13th Radschab, 23 years before the Hijra (29.7.599 AD), as the first and only person within the Kaaba. When the contractions started suddenly, his mother Fatima bint Asad was in the immediate vicinity of the Kaaba and saw only the possibility to withdraw there. Other traditions say that she was there in prayer and the door of the Kaaba opened for her, whereupon she entered it and gave birth to the child.

His mother originally wanted to give him the name "Asad" or "Haydar" (both mean lion), but when she came with the child to Abu Talib's house, Imam Ali's father (a.), The father asked for the name of the child. The Prophet Muhammad (s.) Present there said: "His name is Ali".
