THE STEP TO WORLD PEACE

DOES RELIGION HARM NO ONE?

It is my mission to create a large family of Vishnuists worldwide and to find common ground wherever possible by working together on a world of reason, logic, and unity.

... You are not welcome with us if you believe in god (s), for those who believe in a god have not yet learned the lesson of life and are thus incapable of loving his fellow people, nature, and all its facts.

I feel obliged to speak up and condemn religious untruths because I believe that my indifference to the suffering of others makes me just as guilty as those responsible for the suffering of others, which is why it is best I can do to condemn and shame those who take pleasure in abusing people who use religions as a predicate.

People in, general, should be encouraged to criticize and ridicule religious lies. Especially when this mental sabotage creeps into government law and enforcement. People need to see how dumb this shit is. Because nonsense that is destroying humanity and their irrational nonsense that is imposed on everyone and everywhere without a shred verifiable evidence to support the nonsense deserves nothing but ridicule.

Religion is legalized madness, and a mythological story that never happened requires a mythological bogus God who is of course useless in a real situation. You often cannot convince believers that there is something wrong with their books of God.

The point is that one cannot practice religion without hurting someone. Even the slightest actions have an effect. And the consequences of superstition and religion are obvious to ignore. Any act of practicing religion strengthens the root of superstition and communalism in a society. It normalizes the idea that it is normal to act unreasonably when it gives man a sense of meaning. It normalizes the idea that it is okay to marginalize another community with a different belief if their beliefs or ideas threaten one's beliefs that were themselves assumptions and not a fact at first.

... Religion, regardless of which, is inherently people-oriented. Yet when a society is dominated by religious beliefs and opinions, while completely ignoring what these nonreligious individuals want, these anti-theists should not have the right to ask what makes these fairy tales and superstitions so important that prefer to hold on to seeing every injustice and harm caused by them?

People should learn to be better people for themselves and for their fellow human beings, without expecting anything in return such as a magical place after death. One of the hallmarks of delusional thinking caused by childhood indoctrination is incorrigibility. Man made heaven on earth and at a certain point also hell here on earth, only death has to decide the fate of man. And karma is pure nonsense to scare the people so that their conscience does not work.

Thus says the teachings of Vishnuh:

"Every living thing dies at some point, but God can't die because he's not alive."

I don't hate religion, but I hate using religions to abuse and destroy humanity! Religion has always been a weapon used to oppress people and make people think they must suffer in order to earn a place in paradise. So I hate the weapon and those who wield it against innocent peoples. Christianity invented opium for the masses in the Western world and while innocent humanity practiced humility it was robbed.

Religion is a form of ignorance that is passed on from generation to generation and limits man's ability to find truth. Theists assume that they have justice and superiority because of their beliefs that are totally misguided.

Religion is harmful to the mental health of billions, they make a few people filthy rich and politically powerful without deserving such a position. Furthermore, churches don't pay taxes, they get involved in politics while getting away with child abuse.

I am well aware that most of the people in the poor third and fourth world countries do not have water to drink and not many people have access to good health care, but I see their governments are using their collective resources to send some religious pilgrimages to Saudi Arabia and Israel with the promise of an abundance of everything they lack, but none of it comes, except more developments in the countries where they bring their own money.

Religion does 4 things effectively;

1. divides people,
2. controls people,
3. deceives people,
4. brainwashing people.

Religions are the antithesis of ethics. They have splintered the species into more than 4,000 warring infallible species, causing the conflict from time immemorial, continuing unabated in the Middle East, Africa, and all Third and Fourth World countries, and fueling culture wars in Europe and North America.

... In addition, religion's almost unanimous bans against effective contraception and sex education have plunged the uneducated in Third World countries into the worst poverty. Those underdeveloped peoples there make children like rabbits and multiply like rats.

... In those countries, they do not think about the consequences of overpopulation and maintenance of their children, because the Catholic Church/ religion urges them to have more children and forbids them to use contraception because God takes care of the children. The endearing scene in which Jesus says "Let the children come to me" is not exactly the standard of how children are usually treated in the Bible.

It says in the Bible that children are to honor their father and mother, but that parents are obligated to treat their children well is nowhere mentioned. Children are seen as property and are at the whim of the parents just as man is at the whim of God. And once God starts to punish, children do not have to count on His grace. The believing nations have borrowed their ruthlessness from this because God does it too. They don't have this merciless behavior from a stranger, but they have the example of God.

 SEE ...

(1 Samuel 15: 3) Go now, and smite Amalek, and utterly condemn all that he has, and spare him not; but kill both man and woman, children and sucklings, oxen and sheep, camels and asses.

(Isaiah 13:16) Also, their little ones will be crushed before their eyes; their houses will be looted and their wives ravaged.

13 Vishnuh-Genootschap

(Jeremiah 13:14) And I will smash them one against another, both the fathers and the children together, saith the LORD; I will not pity, nor spare, nor have mercy, that I should not destroy them.

(Ezekiel 9: 5-6) But to the rest he said in my ears, Pass through the city after him, and smite; let not your own eye, nor spare. Slay the old, young men, and virgins, and babes, and women, even unto destruction;

(Joshua 7:24) Then Joshua, and all Israel with him, took Achan the son of Zerah, and the silver, and the robe, and the golden tongue, and his sons, and his daughters, and his oxen, and his asses, and his cattle, and his tent, and all that he had; and they carried them to the valley of Achor. And Joshua said, How have you troubled us? The Lord will tremble you this day. And all Israel stoned them with stones, and they burnt them with fire and overcame them with stones.

(Exodus 12:29) And it came to pass at midnight, that the LORD smote all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh that sat on his throne to the firstborn of the prisoner that was in the prison. and all the firstborn of beasts.

Anyone who might think that God is merciful is disappointed in the story of Jephthah who makes a vow to God to offer the first thing that comes out of his house when God helps him. God does indeed help him and Jephthah has to sacrifice his only daughter and God lets it happen quietly. So God agrees to barbaric practices.

(Judges 11:30) And Jephthah made a vow to the LORD, and said, If thou wilt wholly deliver the children of Ammon into my hand, 31 And it shall come out that shall go out of the door of my house to meet me when I return in peace from the children of Ammon, it shall be the LORD's, and I will offer it for a burnt offering;

(Judges 11:34) When Jephthah came to his house to Mizpah, behold, his daughter came out to meet him with timbrels and dances. She was now alone, an only child; otherwise, he had no son or daughter by himself;

(Judges 11:39) And it came to pass at the end of two months, that she returned to her father, who performed to her his vow which he had vowed; and she has not known a man.

Loving parents should hit their children with a rod from an early age.

(Proverbs 13:24) He that holdeth his rod hateth his son; but he who loves him seeks him early with chastisement.

(Proverbs 23: 13-14) Withhold not an instruction from the child; if you strike him with the rod, he will not die. Thou shalt beat him with the rod and shalt deliver his soul from hell.

(Proverbs 29:15) The rod and reproof give wisdom, but a child left to himself shames his mother."

Here, God has 42 children eaten by bears for shouting baldheads to a prophet.

(2 Kings 2: 23-24) And he went up from there to Bethel. As he went up the road, little boys came out of the city; they mocked him, and said to him, Go up baldhead, go up baldhead. And he turned back, and saw them, and cursed them in the name of the LORD. Then two bears came out of the forest and tore of them, forty-two children."

A gruesome fantasy story and again God commands to kill all children except the girls who are still virgins, which the Israelites can keep to themselves!!

(Numbers 31:17) Now, therefore, kill every male among the little ones; and kill every woman who has known a man by lying with him. But all the children of the female family that has not known the lying with a man, let live for you."

Apparently, crushing kids can also serve a good purpose.

(Psalm 137: 9) Happy shall he that take your little ones and crush them at the rock. "

To win a bet with Satan, God has a house that crushed Job's children.

(Job 1:18) While he was yet speaking, another came and said, Your sons and your daughters did eat and drink wine in the house of their brother the firstborn; And, behold, a great wind came from the wilderness, and hit the four corners of the house, and fell on the young men, and they died;

Cannibalism, God lets parents eat their own children as punishment. Here to the end apparently justifies the means.

(Deuteronomy 28:53) And thou shalt eat the fruit of thy womb, the flesh of thy sons and of thy daughters, which the LORD thy God hath given thee;

(Deuteronomy 28:57) And that because of her afterbirth that went out from between her feet;

This is not ethics, but very bad!!!

... Most of the religious people in the third and fourth world countries are poorer than a church rat and can hardly take care of themselves properly, half of which has just enough to not die yet, and still make children?? They breed!

... It is pure child abuse that happens in those underdeveloped world countries such as the Philippines, Suriname, Africa, India, etc. and this must be immediately criminalized. There, the children are taught from a very young age to eat from the dump, beg for food and end up in prostitution and jail very early. Furthermore, they have no future prospects for education in order to be able to mean something to society later on.

18 Vishnuh-Genootschap

... Children there grow up early and have little time to be children. Girls under the age of 15 give birth to children. Children have children !!!!

As an Earthling, I would like to know how religious peoples such as Americans, Dutch, French, Germans, Italians, Arabs, etc., can “marry” with god & guns using the Bible/ Koran or any other book of God as a guide to justify killing fellow humans?

Why the African and other third and fourth world countries are so poor and underdeveloped and have faith in the theories of foreigners than themselves is because the residents who want to grow the country to the glory it is capable of are not supported.

... The majority want to blame someone or a god, as they themselves are too cowardly to take action, and taking risks is taboo for them. Those backward Africans, Surinamese, and the religious peoples of other underdeveloped countries have a special hatred for themselves because they just want to hear about a merciful God and a religion that doesn't do a single thing for them. They have become sadomasochistic over the centuries. That is, they somehow take pleasure in receiving pain and misery. They will never enjoy peace of heart.

... Furthermore, they would rather put their money in useless religions and useless causes than investing in their own country and in their own people. They nod their heads like a headless chicken in confirmation of their miserable situation and constantly claim that nothing can change it.

... And those who clearly see their country's potential don't have the money and the know-how to make a change.

Thus says the teachings of Vishnuh:

"Whoever lives in the ideas of the past never has a future."

Most Africans, Surinamese, etc. fight against racism but worship a racist God. That is certainly incompatible because that way of thinking involves a twist in their brains?

For example, they like to climb a high wall but don't see a ladder near the wall they want to climb. Yet they imagine that there is a ladder against the wall and unsuspectingly walk up the wall, bumping their heads. Perplexed, they wonder how the hell that could have happened. That is really stupid!

... Africans, in particular, used to sell their own kind to the whites, after which the whites counted them as their possessions and then ruthlessly exploited them elsewhere in the world for centuries. Besides the fact that the Christian slave drivers and the white settlers carried the Africans away as slaves, they also took their riches, their mentality, spirituality, intelligence, knowledge, their wives, and their strong men with them.

... The white people at the time completely hollowed out the Africans and then brainwashed them. In addition, they have figuratively turned their faces backward, taught the black leaders to reason upside down, gave them books to read to follow, gave them new names, new borders, new laws, and new languages.

... This is also the case in Brazil, Nicaragua, Bolivia, Philippines, Guyana, Suriname, Netherlands Antilles, and other islands colonized by the Dutch, etc.

... The traditions held in most underdeveloped countries are the negative ones, and the culture and brilliance of those countries are totally lost. There has been a long search for people who want to change their country and it is straightforward to encourage someone to start, but religion, superstition, illiteracy, greed, pride, and despair are holding those countries back from flourishing.

... Some of those underdeveloped nations are still occupied, especially by the French, the English, and the Dutch who built many infrastructures and used to be the first to refuse to submerge their sewer pipes with cement, but still have oppressive agreements with other colonialist countries with many resources being outsourced to Europe.
