

HEART
WARS

By

Kwan Chak Tang

Copyright © 2021 by Kwan Chak Tang

All rights reserved. This book or any portion thereof may not be reproduced or used in any manner whatsoever without the express written permission of the publisher

CONTENTS

CHAPTER ONE:A PERFECT PICTURE	1
CHAPTER TWO:BROKEN FRAME	9
CHAPTER THREE:JEANETTE'S PLIGHT	16
CHAPTER FOUR:THE VISIT	23
CHAPTER FIVE:FATHER'S LOVE	31

SUMMARY

Benedict is living the dream of a happy family in the midst of a full blown war. With his loving wife and lively kids by his side, everyday becomes a memory. Suddenly, his world comes crashing down when his wife, Chelsea, dies at the detestable Colour bridge alongside his good friend Manny. He is thrown into an abyss of mourning and doubt until Jeanette shows up in their lives.

Would Benedict be able to pick up the pieces of his life and move on? Would he be able to come to terms with reality and look forward to the future? Would Jeanette find a way to mend his broken heart and fix the unhappy family? Enjoy this story of two adults trying to scratch the surface of reality and find their feet on the ground again.

Story Outline

- Benedict reunites with his friend and neighbour, Manny, who had travelled for a while.
- Chelsea enjoys a birthday celebration with her kids.
- Benedict has to let Chelsea and Manny go to Colour bridge.
- Chelsea, Manny, and Koake die at Colour bridge.
- Jeanette meets Benedict on the day of Chelsea's burial.
- Jeanette's father falls sick.
- Jeanette's father loses his job.
- Jeanette frequents the graveyard and forms the habit of watching Benedict until it is late.
- Jeanette feels helpless because of her dad's situation
- Jeanette searches for a job
- Benedict agrees to let Jeanette work for him
- The beauty of Benedict's family touches Jeanette's heart