

The Lyrical Poem

Show me Love

Brown skin when it this begins

I will tell you all things and you know you let me in

On long days, bad nights

When I cannot even pretend do not want our love to end

Your smile, your face

Drives me crazier by the day and I cannot erase how

Your touch Feels like heaven, ah ah

Brown skin loves me till the end

I do not want our love to end

I am in love with your Brown skin

I do not know where we will go from here

Just if you are near

I am in love with your brown skin

Being in love with brown skin

Feels like heaven aah

Feel like heaven

Your smile, your face

Drives me crazier by the day and I cannot erase how

Your touch Feels like heaven, ah ah

Brown skin loves me till the end

Things are not the same without you

I do not feel safe when you are not here

Let us live a life together
Your love I know is meant for me
I am in love with your brown skin
Being in love with brown skin
It Feels like heaven aah ah
It Feel like heaven ah ha ah
How come loving you is so right
But it feels so wrong
If loving you is all I got
With you my heart belongs
Ill be loving you
Until the well dries out
With you is where I belong
I cannot go wrong
Memories of you and me
We had a beautiful thing
I have fallen in love in everything you did
Its time like these I will not forget
The times you sang to me
The words touched my heart
You promised me we would never part
Are the memories I cannot get out my head
With you is where I belong
I cannot go wrong

Memories of you and me
We had a beautiful thing
The memories
Us holding hands
You holding me close
Whispering in my ears
I never forget the kind words you said
Our first kiss
The day we made love
I want a family
So, I can love again
Because being in love
Felt so good, so good
With you is where I belong
I cannot go wrong
Memories of you and me
We had a beautiful thing

With you is where I belong
I cannot go wrong
Memories of you and me
We had a beautiful thing

Each Touch a Melody

You are a vision come true

Your fingers strum my soul

Each touch a melody, each touch a melody

Want only tingling against my skin

Chanting sounds in harmony

Each touch a melody, each touch a melody

I remember my first time

He was the temperament

He tuning my keys

A real life perfectionist

My brass crescendo

Growing louder each tempo

Keying in that rhythm

Stringing strings in my mental

My heart pound beats

Beating full of desire

Hitting notes from everywhere

Notes escaping the fire

Tantic rhythm, droning sax

Poetic verse take us higher

My eyes wide shut yearning
Only you I admire

I am a part of him
And he is a part of me
Have you ever found yourself
Reaching out to me
Cause your touch is a melody
Your touch is melody

I am a part of him
And he is a part of me
Have you ever found yourself
Reaching out to me
Your touch is melody

You are a vision come true
Each touch a melody, each touch a melody

My heart ruptures

At the sound of heartbeats
Against the tides of time
You are my only sense of peace
Embrace each wave
My thoughts engraved
No empty space
My thighs keep shaking

Sounds invisible
These moments seems so mythical
It is just the principle
This love so unconditional
It is not the typical
Perplexed as if it is quizzical
So not resistible
This so nutritional

Your lips pressed
All upon mine
As your tongue moves inside
Yes, my heart cries

Into the sea
While you stroke me with your hand

How I changed into a woman
Hope we get this chance again

Yeah, I am a part of him

And he is a part of me

Was this only for one night

Or eternity

Do you believe in your heart

That it was meant to be

Cause when you left

You took a whole part away from me

I am a part of him

And he is a part of me

Have you ever found yourself

Reaching out to me

Cause your touch is a melody

Your touch is a melody

I am a part of him

And he is a part of me

Have you ever found yourself

Reaching out to me

Cause your touch is a melody

Your touch is a melody

You are a vision come true
