

Operation Olive Branch...
The 3rd Heavy Armored Battalion of
TAF* is advancing towards Tal Rifaat.

Sir, I see the YPG
troop ahead. They have a heavy machine gun.

Give me that!

You,
Bastards!

* Turkish Armed Forces

Yekîneyên Parastina Gel (Eng: People's Defense Units. A Terrorist Organisation based in Syria.)

Yes, sir!

Call me the FSA* Commander.

Sir, yes sir!

They're obviously ambushing. When we go straight, that hill is in the blind spot. The rest of their forces must be there.

The bastards planning to shoot us from the side!

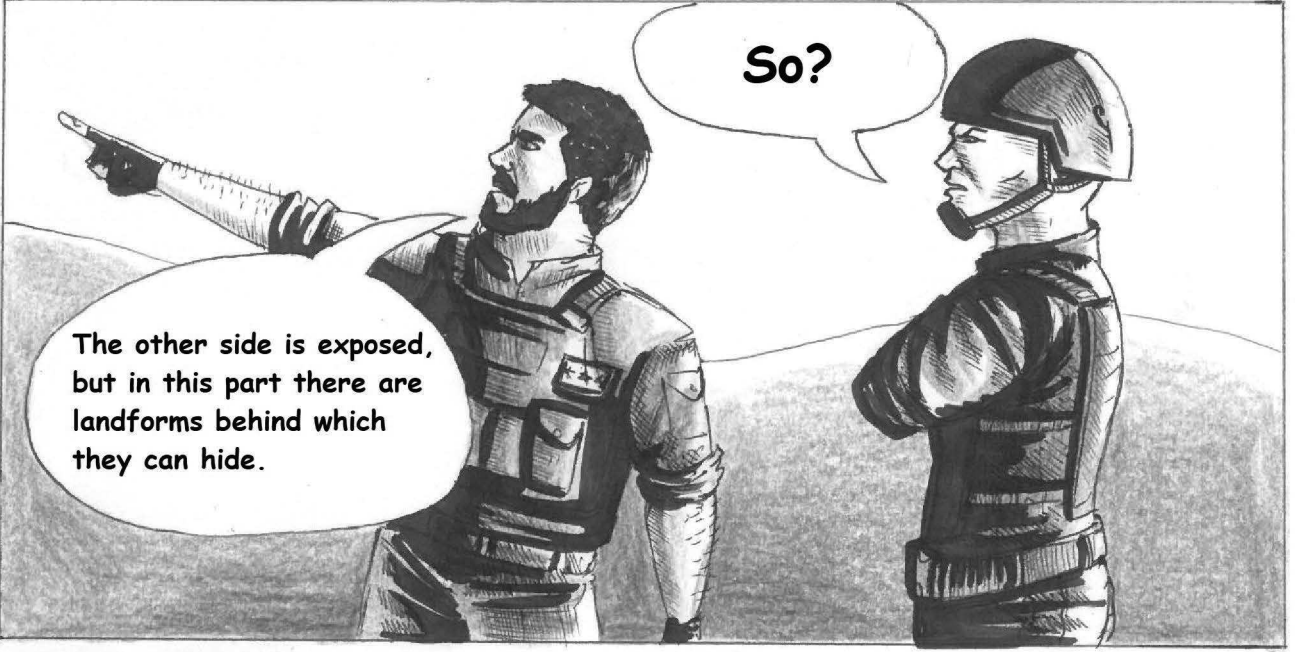

However we can also have a counter move.

*Free Syrian Army: Turkish and US backed loose armed faction based in Syria. -5-

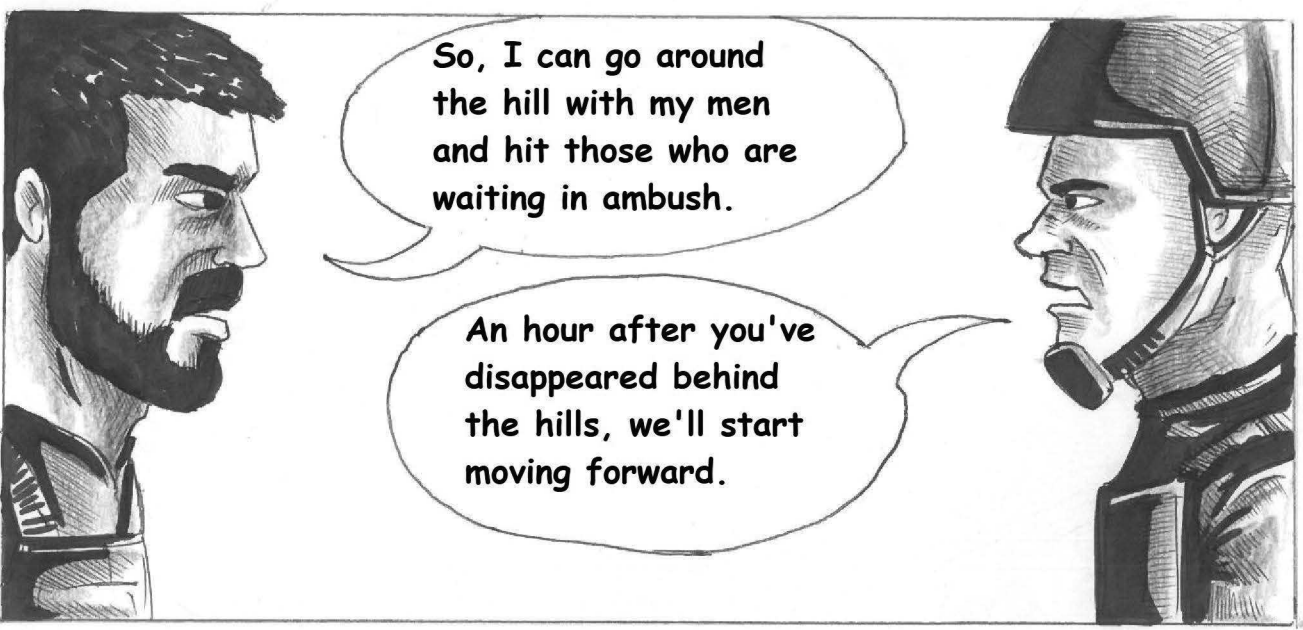

What is?

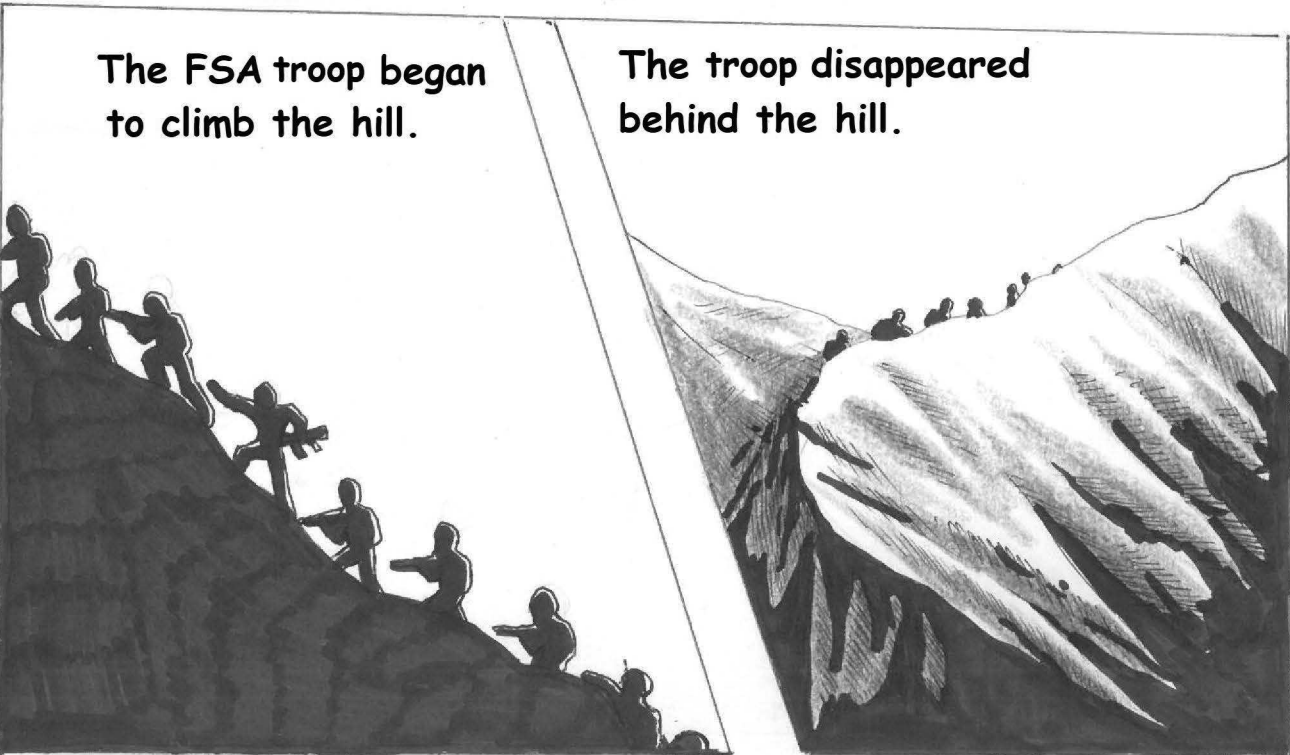

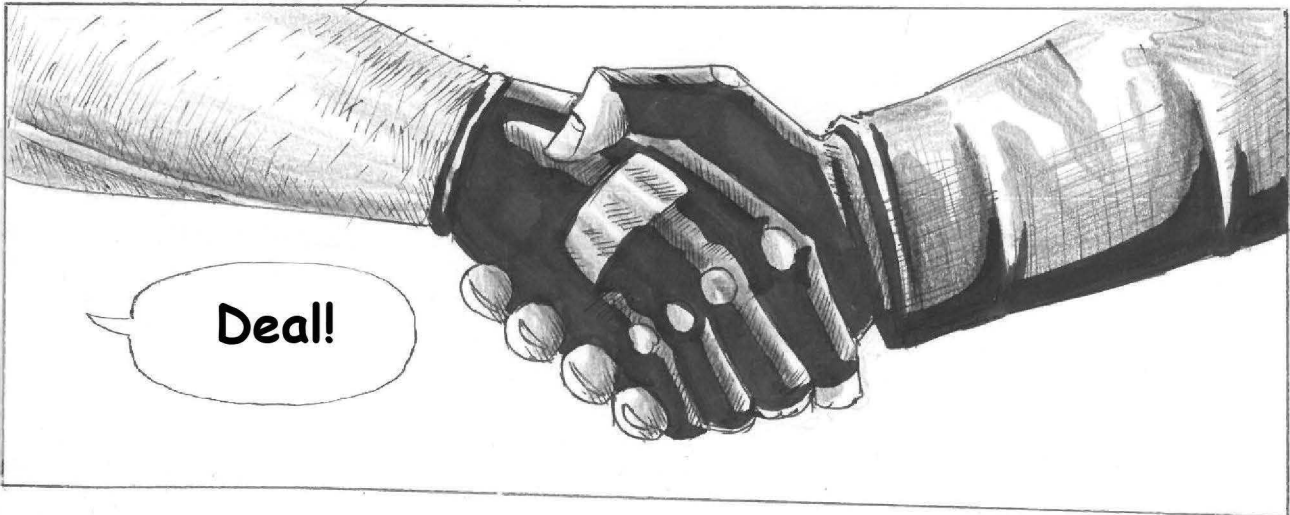

The other side is exposed, but in this part there are landforms behind which they can hide.

So?

So, I can go around the hill with my men and hit those who are waiting in ambush.

An hour after you've disappeared behind the hills, we'll start moving forward.

An hour later.

Time's up.
We're moving.

Yes, sir!
