Arthur the Scout and His Epic Adventures

Nadia Jin

Arthur was a little boy who had moved to a new country with his family, which meant leaving all his friends behind. As he was feeling lonely, he hoped to make new ones. His parents then wondered, 'Why do we not register him with the Scouts?' And so they did.

Very soon, Arthur was a Scout, ready to discover nature in all its splendour and learn useful skills for life, such as making a fire pit to keep himself warm.

He was not completely sure about all this, though.
