Financial education with heart, friendship,
and a touch of magic — because learning to manage money is the most enchanting adventure of all!

 What You'll Learn

 Life Values

Children will discover that patience, perseverance, and generosity are just as valuable as the money they save.

 Practical and Engaging

Includes hands-on activities that turn learning into a memorable experience for the whole family or classroom.

 Learning Through Fun

With colorful illustrations and playful storytelling, this book shows that saving isn't about giving things up — it's about learning to choose wisely and with purpose.

Let me tell you a very special story — one that teaches a little magic about saving, dreaming, and sharing.

Characters

Jack, "Saver Jack"

The careful boy who dreams of owning a shiny red bicycle that sparkles like the stars.

Alex, "Spend-It-All Alex"

The fun-loving friend who adores sweets but dreams of having sparkling purple roller skates.

Luna

The new friend who loves to draw colorful pictures with her crayons.

The Wise Owl

The guardian of wisdom who teaches the secret of the three magical piggy banks.

Jack, the Dreamer

Once upon a time, there was a boy named Jack. Because he was the most careful with his coins, his friends called him "Saver Jack."

Although he loved candy, Jack had a big dream: to buy a shiny red bicycle that sparkled like the stars, so he could ride with his friends in the park.

He often imagined himself soaring through the clouds with magical powers, riding his bright red bike high above the world.
