Hello I am Rizemi Rice Rizemi Kome Rizemi Rose etc.

I am known for making notes in 3 with my old buddies. I decided to give you my private diary cause why not. I am blond with green eyes etc. Hey let's begin my first page. Hey baby I love Damien Rose I love Harry Green I love Koori Uchuu I love many people to be honest ... Men I cannot express how happy I am that this time this is my time for write this journal men. This is like dream coming true. I am writing here all my notes that I didn't come up in journal 3. They are not connected to 3. This is second part of this book trilogy that is ended up anyway but I will give you only my diary as second extra part. I hope this is clear. If not don't worry this is only my personal space to write many of my adventures. <3. Today my day is peaceful. I laughed a lot with Harry and Bill in the bus today OMG!! The sun came after school time. Btw. I am now in dimension where all timelines are at once so this is now the past from CBA and present with my besties and future is also now with this cosmic Koori adventures. This is the best timeline to publish my diary just where all time is at one place<3. Hey baby Harry and Bill are aware I am writing this OMG. Hope they will like my diaries. Hey what else can I say for today page. Oh, I know. Today is Mamiki Kimon birthday! Mamiki loves toilet paper so much that I went with the bus to the toilet paper dimension and just took 5 tons of this for him. He sure will be happy! I am now with Mamiki he loves his birthday present. He was not surprised I gave him nice 5 tons of toilet paper. We laughed so much." 5 tons of toilet paper sure won't be wasted in one year he said" oh this was most beautiful view in my life seeing him unwrapping the boxes of 5 tons of toilet paper and holding one of them in his hands. This was so amazing moment of my life. Mamiki thanked me for the toilet paper and hugged me hardly. I was so emotionally touched of him unwrapping boxes of toilet papers till the sunset. Then he stopped, ate his birthday cake and then I just came back to Damien who made my supper. Today we had dumplings. I will never forget the joy on Mamiki's face... He always joked kind of stuff like" All I want for x-mas is toilet paper" So I decided to give him this on his birthday and he liked this so much. His x-mas tree last year was even decorated with only toilet paper and the one roll was instead of the star. Anyway, I was happy I've spent nice time with him today. My dumplings were yummy. Then I went to bed to sleep with Dami. We had peacefully sleep tonight. I dreamed then about Mamiki as toilet paper fairy or wizard stuff. He was flying and conjuring nice shining magical powder so that I can fly with him and the toilet papers roll. I was flying high with Mamiki then all dream that I remember had finished.

This was good and peacefully 16th of May. Ciao <3

Today I went to New York with Koori, Damien, Harry and Miko we were dressed as brushes to paint our little apartment made only to party. This apartment has 5 rooms. We were conjuring flying spell and we painted all 5 rooms in different color. Bathroom was light yellow. Living room was red. Kitchen was green. Bedroom was purple and guest sleeping room was blue. We were painting the walls full day and, in the breaks, we ate good kebabs. Yummy. We were happy we had used the rain of money from last year for something useful. Aww... then in the evening we made Disco. We saw disco ball shining so pretty giving 5 types of shapes. Star, Triangle, Square, Hearts, Circles. We were dancing rest of the night then I Harry and Damien went to the sleeping room dressed in PJ's and Miko and Koori went to the guest sleeping room. Miko decided to just then not sleep with Koori chan and chose couch in the living room. This was nice day of painting. My pajama is red. Damien's pajama is black and white in vertical lines. Miko's pajama is beige. Harry's pajama is green but with cute beaver image on his top<3. Koori's pajama is purple with pink hearts. We sure had good day. I fell peacefully asleep. Ciao.

Today this was time for other parade again in 5 town. Aww. Today we were dressed as hearts to show that we love each other in 5 town. I was so happy riding in car with Harry and Damien because we were in three for the parade. I wore red heart and red dress. Harry wore black suit but his heart he wore was golden. Damien's heart he wore was black. Nagato chose for orange heart. Jeb for yellow one. Rize for pink one this was heart car nr 2. Heart car nr 3. Was Koori with purple heart. Bill with turquoise heart. And Miko with Green heart. We loved to wave to people happy first 3 cars had the words that made sentence We (1st car) love (2nd car) you (3rd car). Then other hearts came. Satoshi had crimson heart. Mamiki had brown one. Fan 74 had silver one. Car nr 5 was the last one. With Nono and indigo heart Nene and dark blue heart and Rin Miyage with beige heart. People were waving to us full day. We loved today. This was also sunny day. Then I saw Andrew at the finish line he made the nut cake for full day to everyone in town. Then I saw also Haru Honda he made drinks for everyone today. This was nice we had succeeded in the love parade. Parades are very important in 5 town. We do this regularly to keep the people there in good mood. Aww Andrew gave me good hug and then we were dancing Macarena for 2 hours straight as a nice challenge we won nice chocolate boxes. We both could hold this beat for two hours. Aww this was good parade. Very nice and then I went to sleep before midnight in normal pajama at home. Bye and ciao.

Today was really hot so I went from 5 town with Harry to the beach dimension, In the beach dimension there are endless beaches , islands nice seas with all colors of the sky. We walked there together and laughed a lot. Harry is only my best friend but I feel like we are almost soulmates. Aww, so pretty view of the orange sky that took all of my attention Aww the view of our two in the mirror of the sea. Aww the free ice cream he bough me. This was nice day for me, in at 10.p.m Damien called me of I am still with him the beaver prince. I said yes he then told me to come with Harry to do sleepover. He had done grocery shopping for Damien as excuse we had so many time he bough Damien oranges he tried to use multiply spell and from one sack filled with oranges there was suddenly one ton of them that made our home filled with them we must to run away from Rose's house but we slept then on a benches with pillows under nice sky. This was nice day .

20th of May

We woke up we sold half of the houses oranges to the other groceries to shops in the city area and even for a people on planet earth. We made good wealth today baby.

21st of May

Today I was bored out I invited Damien to do something crazy. We decided to eat sushi today at the top of our roof. The view from our roof was amazing. I love the sushi we done today. In the noon something unexpected had happened. There was in 5 town Harry Green with fire extinguisher spell to swim but it went out the control so full 5 town was under this white stuff, I decided to put my red swimsuit and take a red yellow surfboard and swim on this wave. Damien took his black white one surfboard Nagato had one green and Koori one purple we loved the tsunami of fire extinguisher he made. Then after swimming and the moment when someone done this wave gone we made nice beach day. We relaxed all day under the sun. the unexpected had happen and I didn't must even to conjure it. This was nice fire extinguisher tsunami day made by Harry Green the beaver prince

22nd of May

Today I saw something bizarre. Miko had made the sky of 5 town latterly a piece of paper. The sky was not made by the sky but from white piece of paper we still had air. We decided to take pieces this sky and make big origami and paper decorations after we made this. Akemi with Air power and Damien with air power returned us our normal blue sky. The feeling of touching the sky that was made by paper was extremely dry but special. I made cranes for fun and watched sky is being took by people from 5 town then returned back from Dami and Akemi this was spectacular view and nice day.

Today I was walking through the forest in a sunny day, then I suddenly saw Sachiko Yamanaka she waved me the friendly way I waved her back. I was remembering "the requiem for a school action" when we were allowed to put a bomb to our school building if we all pass the exams. The dream had come true. We were dressed in the proclamation clothes but each of us had color of our own. Ex I had red . Harry had green. Koori purple. Damien black. I was happy seeing the explosion of our school building . Then we just partied with the diploma in our hands. Then I just bicycled with Koori Chan to our home. Her home is first in the town line my and Damien bit further. It boards with Forrest and dessert area. This is why it let me remain to this day. Nice carefree end of school. Year later before September for new pupils building was magically back restored and all right. Aww. The feeling of new pupils when they discover CBA again, it sure will feel priceless to them. After my nice walk time I came back to my home. Damien had made lasagne for us the green one with spinach. I liked my carefree walking day cause it was really sunny and I took fresh air in my lungs.

I was randomly chatting with Harry Green so I decided to rapport his messages here into my dairy. He told me he had a second name "Kenny" this was nice then he is HKG<3. He also told me that he had green eyes but only in his ID card cause he is one of this creature that used magic to change his eye color depending on his current mood. This is able then to decipher how he feel. When he made chat with me he had purple eyes. Aww. We made also video call and Damien was doing cosplay of fruits to make call funnier. He had come into the background as strawberry. As banana. As big jam. Aww I wondered if Harry saw it . He wrote me then yes as answer. Aww Harry also wrote that he can be Called "Harushi" as cute nickname. I also call him my Hero in Action cause he takes action immediately. Jeb could sure call his mind state "motivation" Cause he loves to take action. He helped me many times this is why I called him my hero in action. Anyway this was nice that I could write so many funny stuff about my bestie. Damien loves our hero in action too. He helped Damien too many times this was absolutely incredible when the fridge was empty but Harry received call by Damien at 2 a.m. to do shopping for him and he just motivated went to night shop grocery and bough us all we need. He arrived with the food at 2.22 am. we welcomed him with open arms and made night supper. We made for example baguettes with garlic sauce and hams mix. Also the vegetables were inside. This was good day for me Harushi and Damien, Then I fell asleep with Damien and Harushi slept in our guestroom. Bon Appetit when you hungry just eat<3. Ciao.

Today I'll write about my karaoke adventure. There in mountain in 5-town area is karaoke place that Rinka Himawari possess and organize there karaoke lives for those who dare to sing. Today was my night I sung random songs (totally random songs somewhere from internet forgotten videos).In 5-twon in place of those weird neon sticks we can use funny wands that give light balls. They are giving random colors of lights. I liked the public that looks enthusiastic. Rinka before concert gives everyone orange juice for free cause she has orange farm and mandarin farm in 5 town area. I sung songs like "god knows" from Haruhi Suzumiya or Umbrella by Rihanna. I liked karaoke night. At 11.25 p.m. I went with Damien back to home. We ate nice sausage baked one for supper and went to sleep.

26th of May

Today I had small vacation day. I went with Damien Koori Harushi to the big waterfall around the city area. Koori Chan was dressed in her "water ice" model so instead her pink hair bob she had turquoise bob for fun and instead of her purple clothes she had the light blue/turquoise ones. We took big relax. She mad us watermelon ice creams. This was pretty gigantic waterfall in the city area but its size is smaller than the Niagara falls that people have in normal Earth dimension. I was wearing my normal red leather jacket and black skirt. Under leather jacket I often have sleeveless t-shirt or just a t-shirt that is white. My long black shoes are also from leather. They are 2/3 of my legs. They are boots to be exact but I wearing often tights or long socks to balance my main outfit. To addiction to my main outfit I almost always add red ribbon or hairband with ribbon or even pin with ribbon but always red for good style. And because I am big fan of music I often wear golden note necklace. The one with two not one pieces. I don't know how this one calls itself to be honest but this is nice music note. I had very nice relax in waterfall of the city area. Ciao.

27th of May

Today I woke up early around 7 am. I wore nice white dress with short sleeves with two red hearts beneath. I went to the target area for fun in the forest area. There are free targets that u can use to shoot or exercise or to just do anything that is target connected. I wanted to try something sharp so I took gigantic syringe that was even big as the Kalashnikov gun. The needle was ended with big red heart and when you took the plunger towards yourself the needle just shoot and reached the target. I then replaced needles that looked more like an arrow and was shooting towards the target on the trees. I then exercised piece by piece and till noon I could shoot the target's midden for 50 points while I was moving and even running. Then in the afternoon I just went back to home ate lasagna with Damien then I went with him to the forest target area and exercised rest of the day with him. He said he was feeling like a cupid. I agreed with him and said I felt the same. Then I saw Miko coming to us and she said that she made nice supper with mint tea and yummy pork knuckle cause she was trying this today with Jeb and they made us supper. We agreed and ate with Miko, Jeb nice supper in 4 persons this was good and happy day. Ciao.

28th of May

It really happened. I was in today's newspaper top page with Mr. Santo Satoshi We were allowed by government from the city area to put bomb at the one of the largest sky drapers in the city area cause its roof was too crooked and they must to rebuild this. We put magical bombs there then leaved building then we've put the button and the building exploded in the upper part with million of purple stars. Then we had shake our hands and smiles said this was good team work photograph had made picture of us with connected hands during a hand shake. Koori chan said this was beautiful explosion of perfection and she is glad we done this. Damien said he loved this picture <3 and he was happy we dared to do this. Then we just in 3 Damien I and Koori were watching Jurassic Part. Then after 5 first minutes of the movie we heard bell of the house ringing. This was Nagato apologized she came too late for the movie. She must to finish her grocery first we said we don't mind. And I spend rest of the day with my friends enjoying Jurassic Park movie night with fun and laughter. <3 Harry Green came in middle of the movie to congrats me picture with Satoshi and the bomb then he just watched for a while with us. I loved today so much. Ciao.

29th of May

Today I went to the lake in the forest area with Harry. He told me he is building a dam with the beavers. He is known here for being a beaver prince. I was dressed in one piece red swimsuit and I watched him swimming with beavers. Beavers came also to me and one of them I hugged. This was so incredible pleasure to my eyes watching him swimming with all those creatures. After two hours the dam was finally finished. Then the beavers followed him to the house. He put the disco ball on and they were dancing with him. I after I dried myself with towel put my usual checked shirt and black trousers. He wore just black hoodie and jeans. Anyway later we were celebrating with beavers. Then he called all beavers from 5 town cause today their health is being checked. He took more then 100 beavers to the city area. To be happy like each year Harry's beaver were declared healthy and only one had small fever. For the rest yearly check in of beavers were all alright! We then went to the cafe of the city area and drunk coffee there luckily 105 beavers came there with us inside cause there was small rain. Then after 20 minutes rain stopped. We came back with beavers to the forest area of 5 town. Damien made us yummy pesto when we came back with beavers by foot. He was happy seeing that beavers are in perfect health. Aww. The red and green pesto of Mr. Rose was so yummy. Then a little moment after we begun to eat, the beavers one by one waved us bye with one hand up. We waved them back while eating. This was cute moment of my life. Ciao.

30th of May

Today we woke up in 3 in the wooden house of the forest area. We lent this for 3 days. Now is day two. We said good morning to Harry who made us buttermilk waffles and coffee for breakfast. I slept with Damien in one room and he just slept with one of his beavers. The unhealthy one slept in room apart. The wooden house has 3 sleepingrooms. Harry gave also in the morning the syrup anti fever for the beaver. He must to give it to him one week and check or the beaver is okay then back. We loved his buttermilk waffles with yummy honey on it. Harry loves waffles so much<3 so much he can make them with master ship according to me. Aww. Then I see phone ringing. It is Akemi again. She said come quickly with fire extinguisher cause my over is burning in fire!! (oh shit I though not another Akemi emergency!!). I went to the place of the house where fire extinguisher is took it in emergency. Opened the portal to Akemi's house and so fast as possible I made the fire from her oven's house. She was happy hugged me and said thank you. She said their fire extinguisher was used week ago and their Hotaru parents hadn't find a time to buy new one. Then I felt like a (5 town) super heroine again. This was so sweet I could help Akemi once more. Then I went back through the portal to the wooden house. Said to Harry and Damien situation is under control and fire is gone. Then Damien decided just to go back to our Rose's house <3. We waved to Harry . He waved us back. This was another crazy 5 town action. I just wondered what would Akemi do without me. I saved her skin more then 5 times in such an emergency like today. Anyway rest of my day was just peacefully good day. On the way home I went with Damien to the supermarket and bough a lot of washing powder cause we had too few. It was almost so we bough ourselves again many boxes. Then we were back home and enjoyed peace<3. Ciao.

31st of May

Today is last day of May. I had nothing to do so I met Damien and Harry. And we were watching 2 hours of funny cats video. We almost reached high mindset. Or maybe we just reached high after watching the cats. Oh my God, cat in the bowl cat vs printer cat vs another cat. Cat that fell from the table and splatters bowl of milk to the owner. I was dead by laughter with my BFF and my boyfriend Dami. Aww. I felt impossible high after watching two hours of funny cats videos. We got teary eyes by so much funny scenes. Oh at least those videos are easy to find everywhere. Then we just went to the restaurant to Jeb Thomas Pina to eat Asian garlic noodles with shrimps and sea food <3. not only we were high by laugh today but we were also filled with pasta yummy dishes. I liked this end of May so much . We didn't want let Harry go too quickly so we asked him out to stay over in our home he just took pajama from his home then he came back to us and we had funny day in three <3. Such a small funny moments can make sometimes your days to the fullest. I was grateful for this carefree day today. I fell asleep in white pajama with red hearts. Damien in black pajama with white hearts. Harry fell asleep with green pajama with sleepy beaver on the pillow image. This was cute day. Ciao.

June

1st of June

Today I was invited in 50% international child day by Jacob Rabbit to jump with him in his house. Funny about the Rabbit family is that he is only one with white skin the other family members of the Rabbits has 100% blue skin. In the 5 town this is possible. I saw 3 other Rabbits. They has many wealth but ... This is a lonely family if 5 town. Very misunderstood. I was happy Jacob invited me today. We entered big living room. And from the walls there were squares that u could move with your feet and then feel like in adventure movie. With every square you moved from wall toward yourself a stair. The hidden stair was formed. The dangerous part was that there was only a wall that u could hold or the squares so you could easily fall. Today was only for fun so there was pillows reserved to us. Damien and Harry came with me Jacob enjoyed the circles from stairs squares we made together around the giant living room. To our luck noon from us 4 fell and we jumped luckily around the squares. The stairs from the floor till the second floor formed a circle spiral we walked jumped and climbed to it. This was happy day for me, Harry, Jacob and Damien. Then other 3 people from Rabbit family that were with Jacob home waved to us we waved back. Then I and Harry were still not tired so we decided to run around the town bus station. In 5 town you have 15 bus station. My Rose house has on 15th last station cause it is close to the forest and dessert area. Bus station closest to the Rabbit family is the 3rd one so we decided to run 3 station further to the Miko house area the 6th bus station then take bus to my home and call Koori chan to wait for us with pizza and kebab. Koori had took her phone she agreed. The plan was succeed. We took bus from 6th area to my 15th area and then Koori was waited with pizza and kebab to us. We opened door of our Rose house and enjoyed good dinner/supper she even ordered many rice meals for fun. This was happy child day <3 Ciao.

2nd of June

Today I was remembering old times from CBA. I know a lot of time passed since my diploma there. I was thinking about my first 5 star people that I tried to form. It was me as leader who controlled the fire. Koori chan who controlled power of ice. Third one was Miko with Earth. Forth was Akemi with power of Air. And last one Nagato with power of water. This was my first 5 team I ever made in school. We were fighting evil together after school. Those were nice times. They answered every call from my phone heart. Later I done my 5 again with Kome sister Rize but was not the same feeling like back them. First 5 was other. I like new 5 too. New 5 is only with Rize instead of Miko for earth. I think I can work well with both teams. Sometimes it was fighting evil in three if someone was unable to reach. For example when I was playing agents with Miko and Koori and then emergency came.. We had to use our wisdom to defeat adversary in sky draper. The invisibility spells we finally used to defeat Mamiki who closed Akemi in cage. I don't know why he done this. In end we won.

So.. this was 00 team (the old one)... The 01 team (the new one with Rize) and the 03 team when we were serving the biggest good only in three. I tried to do 04 team from the internet.. but then I got the answers for the earth elements like nonsense. For example when someone (I think female) from Burkina Faso had sent hundreds of idiotic messages that I am lying and that I do black magic. So I though no more searching for our magical community from the internet this was total nonsense but at least I tried. The truth is better 3 solid teams then 100 fake from internet... Anyway this was nice memory note <3 I am going to listen to some music for relax now. Ciao.

3rd of June

Oh My God. I jut woke up today in the room filled 50% only with pens. I felt pain I was surprised in shock and I had ink marks all around my body. I was wondering who put me there. Where is Damien!! Oh my god... Oh I see he woke up surprised and still sleepy. Why we woke up in this pen dimension. He didn't know. He only said he was making his homework to the end. His face was also lined with pen. He had also few wounds. There outside we took umbrella cause pens were falling today from the sky. We took few to our bags and then we returned home. This is not the first time in my life when we woke up subconsciously and consciously in one of the dimensions we were before. Maybe we just had think too much about our homework. Anyway we have hundreds of free pens for rest of the year <3. But I sometimes dislike when unknown dimension just called you up. This magical surprises are my least favorites. Anyway It was only a pen dimension readily harmless. <3 With all pens of the universe even those you used and only remember in your memory<3. Ciao.

4th of June

I was thinking with Harushi about nice surprise to Damien's B-day tomorrow. Damien then said he just nothing but his good friends around them <3. We decided to give him yet a surprise. We went with Harushi to bunny dimension and catches a black rabbit for his tomorrow birthday. He saw it before... oh no. But he liked his b-day gift even today. He was super happy we decided to give him friendly rabbit. <3. In the afternoon Akemi asked us if we can go with her to the Coney Island Luna park to the Deno's Wonder Wheel Amusement Park to be exact. We agreed she had reserved this before so this was sad if no one would come with her. So I let Harry and Damien decide who goes with me. They said call Koori chan. I agreed. Then I and Koori and we used magical spell we were only in 3 there so we used the magical spell to this wheel to take quickly round around New York. We were spinning around like a record. Aww, then we saw in rush New York again. We returned wheel to the place. It was conjured anyway so no one was complaining to the fact we had extra trip. Then to my surprise Harry and Damien were waiting to me and we ate ice creams in 5. This was nice day in the Coney Island I was happy I could manage two so different things in one day. Rabbit dimension for Damien's gift and the unknown adrenaline-full trip on the millennium wheel in the Coney Island aww at least 2 or 3 different dimension on one day but it was worth this. I had nice day and I cannot wait to Damien's birthday tomorrow. 5 of June Rose sweetheart of mine<3. After ice cream I just went back with my Mr. Rose to 5 town we were ready for his b-day tomorrow. Ciao.

5th of June

Oh this was my sweet Mr. Rose birthday I was so happy. I went to the wig dimension with Damien as his b-day gift. We spend millions of seconds there. Aww Damien took so many wigs today. I took one with total length of 3 meter. It was covering full body of mine. Damien said he knows charity so he took few for his friends too. He took black with orange hearts for Harry. One purple with two pigtails for Koori. One Black and Green to one eye for bill. Aww Damien had so much fun with trying many wigs. One of his favorite was brown haired and white haired with fringe. He told me it applies well to his reddish eyes. His eyes are brown but it looks more reddish <3. Damien took even curly black hair wig, and curly red hair. Aww he had so much fun. <3. Dami took at least 100 wigs for his birthday Aww. Then we came back to our Rose house. Aww.. There were Miko Koori and Harry waiting for him with cake. Also Bill came with gift a snow globe with Rizemi and Damien. This was not yet December but it sung happy jukebox box song from years 2000 if you played this. <3. You could put the times on the back side how long you wanted music to play maximum was 3 hours. There were songs like Kesha's Tik Tok.. Requiem for a Dream Lux Aeterna. Katy Perry Hot n Cold. Rihanna's We found Love... Pink's So What.. Cascada's Evacuate The Dancefloor. Hmm. He gave us complete list but this was long this was 25 songs in total. Bill found this in 8-market. In 8 market you can find what you are looking for if your intention is pure. This gadget was awesome for Damien. Also on the foundation of the snow globe in front was the text "2000 BFF's" We started as BFF's but we ended up married. Life is funny. Then Damien just ate cake with us. He told me he cannot wait with experiments for his outlooks <3. And he added the party for his b-day was succeed with his besties like each year. Aww. Then after midnight we fell asleep tried after dancing with our besties full day and evening <3 Ciao.

6th of June

Oh we woke up later then usually. Aww Damien was still in his pajama. Aww.. But wen we woke up we see full room filled with fire extinguishers. They were Damien's late birthday gift from Jeb Thomas Pina. He though this is practical gift needed in everyone's home. He wrote in his letter. "Use wisely and in need, Happy Birthday" He added also cute birthday card with text " Damien Rose 65 lets lets celebrate..alright alright!!" Damien was happy but then we saw there are more fire extinguishers from Jeb in our home. They are all in our home. We called Harry Koori Bill and Miko of they are interested to take at least 100 of those bottles cause they are all in our home. They agreed. Then we've put rest of the bottles into our Rose's attic and one per room. This was nice birthday surprise from Jeb. We then ate rest of Damien's b-day cake from yesterday. Watched some comedy on the couch and walked nice in our garden. Then we decided to run in two with the super speed spell from our 12 area to the 1 area. The school CBA and the university are main attraction in first area. In the second area are restaurants and Jeb's home. In 3rd area mountains and karaoke party with Rinka and Rinka's mandarin farm. In 4th area we have houses and living area Miko lives there. In the 5th area we have Harry's home the libraries and the cinema. In the 6th area they are typical Shopping and party area's + my magical boutique when I am in mood to sold and create clothes. Mauricio Angelo lives there. In the 7th area we have hospital for magical and usual daily cases. Nene Sakurai lives there Riami too and Nene. M and Nono. M too. There is many empty roads there so we use this often to parade away from hospital. There are also TEXACO tank station. Fantasy field with all fantasy gadgets like the shield shop. There is also Ria's mechanic service and my favorite chainsaws shop. There you can find also Sho Banana handyman place. In the 8th area we have rest of the fruits farms like the oranges. Rize and Nagato lives there there are also fabrics of 5-town there lives also Furi Hibayashi in candy fabric. In the 9th area we have beach with Luna Parks Koori chan lives there in 10th we have casino's and even more game's area Fan74 lives there. In 11th We have few sky drapers (despite we are on suburban we wanted few high building too) Ken Kimura lives there. There is also 8-market. From Bill got nice gift for Damien yesterday. And in my 12th area of Rizemi and Damien there is forest and desert Area, Aww I love my 5-town btw. Sachiko Yamanaka lives with us in 12th area that is nice we are neighbors. Aww. Anyway we took nice running through the town and this was healthy. Then we just ate yummy supper with Camembert, grapes and brie. Yummy. Ciao.

7th of June

I'll add here also extra magical information about our 5-town areas. Every area has its own zodiac to represent this. 12th area: Aries, 11th area: Taurus. 10th Gemini, 9th Cancer. 8th Leo. 7th Virgo, 6th Libra, 5th Scorpio 4th Sagittarius, 3rd Capricorn 2nd Aquarius 1st Pisces. Despite Harry's area is in 5th area, We see each other regularly cause his beavers are in the Aries area in the forest<3. He uses often just the portal to go to our 12th area sometimes when this comes to his beavers he stays nights over with us<3 (or sometimes just for fun Cause it is Ha-RD friendship... Harry Rizemi Damien BFF zone). I'll see you later dairy cause Harry just came with his beavers. Polish aspic and the good quality vinegar so we will eat now. Ciao.

8th of June

I will write now the memory about my school bus. I had the confession of Damien in the bus that he likes me and he will stay with me no matter the time. Then we were BFF's then in the pop corn dimension we became Boyfriend and Girlfriend and at 6th of May we married. But now back to the bus. In CBA we don't have any school bus only the buses from 5 town. They are riding a lot. 10 minutes break between them. If you missed one bus the next one will arrive 10 minutes later so we don't wait a lot. They are also on time. Oh I had nice memory with 5 town bus. When Harry waved when he went to his 5 station. Or when I sat close to Koori chan many times. Or when I and Damien kissed in the bus. But the best is. Better then our 5 town public bus. Miko private green party bus. This can ride even through the city area or whenever she wants on earth dimension cause it is her private bus. We have also lines from the 5 town to the city area. They are riding 30 minutes or 2 times in one hour. <3 I liked the moment when Jacob Rabbit was doing light spell and then we was shining like the bulb in the entire bus. I liked a lot when I saw Satoshi in bus and in the airplane. This was so short moment but I liked it. He in public seems to be more serious then in private moments but everyone likes him. I liked when I saw Hirune riding in the bus to the Hotaru Oto's home to celebrate his birthday. I liked when I gazed to Damien's eyes in the night when he laughed and had guitar after stupid music lesson. I liked when I gazed in Damien's eyes in the bus in sunny day too even if he didn't have any guitar he had music in his eyes. I liked when I was in 5 town bus also alone and made small nap. Btw I guess those were enough of examples that 5 town bus is not a crap for me. If you are bored out you can also come with the metro to the 5 town. The subway is also very nice it goes through the whole city area till our 5 town. We even have the airplane close it is between 5 town and the city area. But what we don't have is train. You can reach 5 town by bus, by subway and by airplane but not a train in the open space. Or you can call Miko to pick you up but probably price will be huge. What is the best the bus during the vacation area in 5 town is gratis so don't be afraid and let yourself go. Hahaha. I guess I told u enough about how to reach 5 town didn't I dear diary. Ciao. (And yes I wrote about bus cause I took one to my 12th area home I will eat baguette now Ciao one more time).

I was in the party.. Worried after I saw the text in our newspaper the other people done the same. The text was OMG THEY KILLED HARRY.. This was Harry Green oh no my best friend they wrote he sunk in the river after being punched by motor... then we see exactly at 17:11 Harry is back to our party wet with his beavers. OMG HARRY IS BACK TO PARTY WITH US. He told me the newspaper was too quickly today, he told us this was true the motor on the bridge almost shoot him but he decided in quickly impulse to jump to the river instead and in love he summoned his beavers to help him get save from river ,3 and yes he can swim. He arrived from river to the ground safely and had run so fast as possible to reach our party that started at 17:00 <3 Aww Harushi was safe <3 Then he just called newspaper that he is just alive and then they just erased the front page. The beavers were celebrating with us and we were all happy Harry was safe with us. Then we putted our favorite A1 class CD that I and Koori made long time ago. "Disco Draconica" Aww I was with Damien happiest person on earth Harry didn't die before our party. <3 We hugged him with joy and danced with him to the CD. Then we went in 3 to our Rose home and he slept over with us in our home. This was good day cause Harushi was safe. Ciao.

We made each other impossible challenge. We were there 10 girls (Rizemi. Rize. Nagato. Rinka. Sachiko. Miko. Nono. Nene. Koori. Ria) and 10 boys (Damien, Harry. Haru, Banana. Jeb, Mamiki, Satoshi, Bill. Hebi. Fan74). We were in F1 sports cars. We said that we will drive just with one arm. And see who will reach first three places. My sport car was red with golden triangles to above. <3 Jeb's was full yellow with gold elements. The rest was just standard colors with their names, Yes Fan74 is not a name.. He told me longer time ago his real name was like Nubbinson or Nick.. I don't know how but I cannot get usual to see his real name. Nick Nubbinson. This is his real name yes I remembered this. He had just Fan74 written on his green purple hippie sport car. After we all got into car. We had one arm chained with the safety bell to be honest to this challenge and we had made the pillow spell maximum if we would punch. <3 so three two one. Let's go! We started to drive .. I felt like I had two arms in one... Aww Koori was first who got the pillow spell working. She was totally out the balance this time. Anyway speed.. high speed.... Quickly.... Then I was on the second place by finish line. Omg Silver.. Then I was Harry he was driving master ship Aww he won gold. <3 Then Nick Nubbinson Fan 74 won brown. Omg this was on lightning speed for me. I saw Rinka also in pillow spell this time and Sho as well the rest just crossed after hard work the line. We enjoyed day together. So then I just putted my silver medal on my wall in Rizemi old house. Aww I clean there too regularly cause this is still my possession. My first house was in the first area of CBA then I moved with Damien to the 12 area <3 always when I see my Rizemi's original house this bring my happy memories back.. I had fun today. Ciao.

Today I had accident with my chainsaw and powder. I added red and brown one. Then Damien said" Let's chase Koori chan for fun" While he was saying this I accidentally stood up too quickly and the powder splattered on the chainsaw. Oh Shit it woke up and begin to buzz on itself. Omg Koori chan better run now. OMG Koori begin to scream cause my chainsaw was chasing her by itself. I tried to stop my chainsaw but it was running so fast. The Chainsaw was chasing her and I was chasing the chainsaw. Koori chan put her shoes to the sea quickly to get more comfort to run adrenaline was on maximum. I tried to stop chainsaw with both my feet but it was further chasing Koori chan because this sentence Damien said. Damien tried to stop chainsaw with me we had 4 feet in total but he fell on the sand back. I was then flying on the chainsaw. It felt like in a rocket of space. Omg poor Koori chan. Even if I tried to put the chains while I finally sat down on the flying chainsaw it was still running. Then Damien finally come back with white powder and said "no more chasing get relax blessing" and shoot the powder on chainsaw. It finally stopped working. I was happy. Then I apologized Koori she forgave me. Then we made her many sweets and meals as sorry sign. We spend rest of time together today, Then at the end of the day I decided I will not have chainsaw further in the living room as decoration so I just put this one in the evening with sunset into garage. This was very extraordinary day. Ciao.

Today it is Furi Hibayashi birthday.. So I went today to the needle dimension. In needle dimension are also syringes.. and my cake syringes were today weirdly gone, XD.. so I quickly went there cause I wanted to finish the text "Happy Birthday Furi" So .. I can do this with cake letters but with syringe you can just have this mini pen and make text more fluffy and good looking so I will just get one now.. I went then back to home with cake syringe and I written with chocolate sauce on the vanilla cherry cake for Furi this text. I must say I remembered our old homework for general dimension discovery. We chosen I don't know how but in our A1 and B1 class and the exchange student the needle dimension so we must to go there and write something and present something about this needle dimension. I must to get a partner to do this presentation by number. I was nr 2 and I saw Omg! Jeb Thomas Pina is also nr 2 so I will make this homework with him. Then the day of presentation I saw so many interesting things. Damien and Rara Shirohara were one pair. They showed that in needle dimensions you can find a pine trees made totally from syringes and they took syringes and made Damien the suit nice outfit of this safe way so that he wont get injured. The outfit was totally gorgeous. Then I came with Jeb.. three two one .. he showed his glutes muscles. With the points that made the text "good morning" good on the left side and morning on the right side' he was busy with his kitchen so we must to find something creative for this homework very fast so he just said "let's show then that in needle dimension you must be super careful cause they are needles everywhere (almost).. Then this must to be original so he added " lets show them some text" Then I thought about sentence "good morning". Jeb had not feel much pain cause in the glutes muscles pain is minimal. Lesson was made in 5 parts. Cause it has only 1:30.h for like 10 minutes per pair... then I thought with Jeb we will get an F but then I see week later Omg we got an A+. for extremely hard work to show that in needle dimension better be careful and even wear extra outfit if needed. This was one homework I will never forget. Then Furi had come this year to Rose's house. The cake was finished on time and we were celebrating with him and our friends I the garden. Aww this was pretty day <3 Ciao.

Today I bough Happina also called Happin or "Jappina" from Spanish this is powdered orangeade.. It has all color but no black. You can add this to puffs<3 Happina is the best orangeade in town. So I called Harry and Damien to bring the puffs. Yes Harry can make pastry and puffs he loves to make.. Aww.. He is now ready.. Me too. Damien too. We added Happin the white one this time with orange taste to his puffs. We ate at least 3 of those puffs we loved this. Happina was good as extra taste layer. Our tummies were filled. Then we just had fun on the couch and on the floor and we danced.. we didn't waste Happina so we actually made a drink with this. It was orange this time yummy drink and yummy puff with powder orangeade.. aw nothing can go better. Good Friday Night. <3. Blessing in three. And yes I putted even with him Last Friday Night TGIF by Katy Perry. We even danced on the table. I loved this we even made video where we are dancing on the table with chairs. This looked like Texas Chainsaw Massacre Leather face dance from 1974 OMG. This felt so free. I love that I have friends that I can be just myself and eat yummy snacks. Aww. Better silly funny carefree day probably cannot be. We are just ourselves and this is what matter. Then to our surprise we heard a bell ringing at 11:07 pm. This was Koori chan asked if we want extra kebab cause she ordered too much. We said yes. After good kebab supper Koori was also dancing with chair. She made circles there like Jed. Xd. We had partied in four rest of the night. Then just fell asleep in Harry's home. We didn't even notice time, just danced and partied till our energy is gone. Aww. This was carefree Friday night. Ciao.

Today I was ready after my Friday party to the international championship of running a marathon with your husbands underwear. It had begun at 3 pm. They were people in the city area's stadium. They were people from Earth dimension too. All around the world. The husbands were in VIP zone to support wives. More then 100 wives. 150 were participants. I had Damien Rose's male underwear steady on my head. 3 2 1... Lets Go.. I was running a lot of times fro my hobby but this time it just went effortlessly.. <3 I won silver in main marathon. I dunk a lot of Aquarius drink after the marathon. I saw Rin Miyage from my old CBA school winning gold. She was euphoric. At the third place someone form Egypt had won the brown medal. 4th someone from USA. 5th someone from China 6th someone from Poland 7th someone from Mexico 8th someone from Congo 9th someone from Portugal and at 10th place was a lady from France. The husbands were so proud of their wives. Damien was so proud and happy for me too we hugged at the finish line. The other 140 wives won certificate of participation and candies. <3. Aww I won in Damien's pants. I knew there is no barrier between us two. Aww. I wonder if someone will participate in boy (husband) marathon next year at june 15. But this is now away. I went to my Rizemi home in the first area and I hung up the picture of this on my Rizemi picture wall. And medal in my room of gadgets. In my room of gadgets I am keeping nice objects of my life. <3 aw this was really something I never excepted.. winning this.. even if running is my hobby. I liked then the evening with my friends. Koori Damien Harushi all in restaurant of good all inclusive worlds kitchen. You pay one time ad you can eat all kitchens from the world. <3 This was so good memory<3. Am I dreaming that this day will end.. probably not I went back with Damien to Rose home after 12 midnight but the supper was worth this. Ciao.

Today I went to fire dimension. I was there doing the fire surfing. There is nice fire waves the special surfing board so that fire doesn't burn it. So I was on the top of fire in my red one piece swimsuit. Harry is also and Damien is also fire element lucky me so we took swim time. On fire. Oh men this was hot.. We loved the fresh adrenaline dose and nice warmth of the fire dimension. Harry has also lava element so he can just bath In the hottest warm bath of the volcano and not get burned <3 Aww. Watching him enjoying coconut. In the lava lake. He said he will give us lava spell to mix with our fire so.. We said "Rizemi fire Harry lava unite !" and Damien fire Harry lava unite" after this unite spell we were able today to bath with him in lava this was so amazing I will never forget this my entire life. Then after this we surfed last time and went to Jeb Thomas Pina cause he promised to eat supper with us. We ate so many sea foods. Men this was amazing fire dimension trip . I am happy my BFF's has all three me Damien and Harry power of fire as the chosen spiritual element. Koori has with Nagato water as main spiritual element. We knew it since first transformation lesson. Where we took shield and then shield changed color on basis of your spirit element that dominate. My shield was red. Jeb's was yellow so he was Air. Aww. Koori was blue so she was water. And you know Miko and Rize they had green this means Earth. But the fire dimension was amazing today . Supper with Jeb too. I had an amazing day. Ciao.

Today I saw Harry on the floor he was washing his teeth during lying on the floor to get interesting challenge. Then he just spited the rest in the sink but the wash process was on the floor. Harry was bored out. Yet when he was on the floor there were thousand of teeth-pastes on his floor too. Weirdest was that I was watching him through the not existing on Earth dimension Skype. But we still have Skype in 5 town thanks to our magic. Then I decided to copy Harry and washed my teeth with one hand with standing on one leg. Zen. We liked out call today. Then we jumped in the air we done this small challenge. Aww then I went with Damien to Harry he gave us toothpaste. He said we will have pearls. Then we putted Cd's from Eurodance, 2000 etc. We then made at noon challenge we will jump constantly three minutes straight. We called Koori chan she saw us jumping during teeth brush. She was happy nothing happened to us. Aww. Koori chan saw also us dancing in the bathroom with towels and bathrobes. We called her cause this was boring Monday anyway. She danced too with us. He was amazed when Koori chan made push up on the desk of her. Then we just called Miko. We showed her we are drinking energy drink red bull. She showed us her pasta. Then we called fun. Then we called Mamiki we showed him dance with money,. He danced too to the rap songs. Hahaha. Aww I liked our boring Monday challenge. Then Harry called his beavers on Skype. They danced with us Macarena and I like to Move It from Madagascar. Aww. Then at the last call with Kome Rize and Nagato we just danced with our bowls for supper. The full day before PC with our friends was nice to do hey hey hey. Then we went back to Bed and Harry was on his white bike with his beaver waving to us... But then in the middle of the night we saw one of Harry's beaver he forgot ones. I decided to open portal to his home. Aww he was sleeping with one beaver. I then returned his last beaver to him. But yet.. He was sleeping so peacefully I looked at his face for a while. I returned to my bed. Aww was hugging him his black hair aw so cute little boy. Aww this friendly warmth aw Ha..Da.. Aww it was Harry I forgot about my Rose best buddy just fell asleep in Harry's arms. He was well dressed in pajama. I couldn't resist staying in Harry's bed cause this was late night. Then he said he didn't mind staying with me in bed for while he understood I was tired. Then I went back to Damien to breakfast he didn't mind one sleep over in Green's house. He liked it. Ciao.

Hey after breakfast.. I tried this.. go to the people of town metadata in the attic of tree hotel. Normal this is forbidden to go there but I wanted to see my memory. People decided to put our memory metadata there. Is 5 on 5 closed. But hey.. I used my wise mind. Opened this with 5 different vibration spells there we are. This was big computer but no hard disc. You can just put your hard disc to copy your memory data. So I done this for myself. I copied all my memories and information to my hard disc. Then.. When I wanted to see someones memory I hear door open... OH SHIT.. I putted on delete button on everyone in town. Oh no their memory of everyone became deleted. I turned back.. There were people standing. Satoshi, Damien, Jeb and Harry. They said nothing bad had happened. They got this 5 vibration spell longer time ago too. Jeb added he downloaded to his hard disc all basic memory of every citizen of town. The number of our citizens are between 600 to 700 but It vary each year. Jeb then inserted his basic data of everyone back. Bad thing was that their memory was now gone. "Because of this we will make new ones." Damien said. The fact this 4 and me was there means they had their memories in order. They were never gone. But the rest 600 to 700 OMG because this small delete button. But they said this will be alright. There is high probability that they will be busy with similar life tasks like before. Anyway then I went back to my Rose home and ate nice fish for dinner. The door of the big metadata had closed once again since we left. Lets begin life with them once again I laughed this was just too silly to be real. I was Happy I was one of the 5 people who didn't lost memory completely I had big hope and faith that they will be alright soon. And their magical powers hidden in themselves will reveal itself once again. Then after dinner I just putted my hard disc to 5 millions of various dimensions with my memories I downloaded. The copy were good saved in 5 000 000 dimensions. Then Damien n Harry just made the supper and the day was finished. Ciao <3. (N cherish your happy memory reminder:))

Hey today was sunny. I went to the beach..To the island dimension to be exact, There was to my surprise Koori chan. Today I took day of vacations to relax. Koori is happily in her watermelon one piece swimsuit. I am this time in black white vertical lines one piece swim suit. We are having fun. I had also a hat. We hugged splattered water to ourselves. Played with an inflatable balls ha-ha. Then we decided to conjure the big ones to get our bodies there. We were having fun in those transparent funny balls. We decided to use even the flying spell. We had so much fun. We punched balls for fun. We had no gravity at all. This moment with her on the beach was like eternity ha ha but positive way. Then Damien joined as in the noon on the beach he added air to his own inflatable ball too. We had no gravity at all. The best is that the beach dimension had also abandoned islands that you can take all to yourself. We had flied high and enjoyed highly happy moment of no gravity. I knew Koori was good in mood. She said that she will enjoy the eternity of this funny moment. Then we watched sunset go down. And I went with Damien to the Rose's house. Aww. The fly in the inflatable balls felt so childish so carefree so happy and so high. This beach day do it a-again. Then we were happy we saw Koori once again. <3 She sent also the small message. "Thanks for today" we wrote "You're welcome back". Everyone in town had its own color on the chat. Normal black white chat doesn't exist. This was called orange chat first. There are more then orange possible like I said. But the original chat of the 5 town calls itself "The orange chat". Koori's chat color is purple and had pink background. This was good one day vacation day in June with Koori chan. Ciao.

Today I, Damien and Harry were in first area of 5 town. The school area. There we wanted to pick the train to the city area. But then the giant pig had fallen on the train. Omg train was destroyed by giant pig. But pig was alright. Then we thought maybe we will go to the city area by bike and with speed spell. But then pig had fallen on our bike we lend. Omg all tree pigs had fallen on our bike. But pig was alright no harm at all. Omg what the hell happened. Then we wanted to take the bus to the city area but then pig had fallen on the bus. The bus was destroyed too but pig was alright no harm at all again. We decided to take this as sign to not go to the city area. When we decided our last chance to go there by feet with speed spell the worst thing had happened. There was rain of pigs. Hundreds of pigs were falling from the sky. We couldn't move from 1st area, Then we decided just to dance and sing. "Pigs are falling from the sky.. We love this we love it. "pigs even began to dance with us they even putted the disco ball. They showed us full tree with money. They said if we don't go to the city area we can take the leaves of money bills all to ourselves with good disco music we took money to ourselves. And danced with pigs. They gave us peach juice. This was nice unexpected disco day instead of city area expiration but this was awesome party. Harizemi en Damiemi had fun today in three. Ciao.

Today we decided on Nikko Bill's birthday go and made our 5-town billiards game, It is the same rules but we have three black 8 balls. So the same amount of balls but the 8 comes 3 times. 888<3. This makes the normal boring game 8-pull game bit more difficult. Not 16 balls in total but 18. And the 8 balls must come as last. Bill likes games anyway. We also putted magical Billboards for him with the text "Happy Birthday Bill" Aww. He was so happy with playing with me. He won this time. I bough him even billiards game balls as a gift. He was happy. Then he played match with Damien. Damien won this time. Then we decided to play after his cake, that was friendly vanilla cake this year, a normal card game. We chosen Double Solitaire game. This is just the normal patience game but for duos. He and Harry made it. I and Damien simply were enjoying snacks played billiard again and watched then playing patience for the rest of the day. This was so amazing birthday. Then in the evening we went back house. Harry was so filled with the snacks and cake he didn't want to take the bus to the 5th area. So we decided to let him sleep in our home again. Aww This was epic day. Ciao.

+ Song (yes we were singing to him in the club for his b day for real)

" Happy birthday Bill with you we will always chill
and get a happy thrill

Your positives are so high
With you and your clairvoyance everything feels right
Today lets hug Bill very tight
All right All right!

Bill's positives will win every fight
lets enjoy Bill's birthday form day to deep night

Today I was in tea dimension with Mau Angelo. The pizza man. He has pretty dark blond hair and purple eyes. So there was an accident. The tea dimension citizens said don't save him he deserved people are sinking in tea sea on own advice.. But I couldn't let him sink in sea of tea just no death like this. He is so skinny and clumsy he couldn't be sinking now for own wish. So my heroic side had spoken once again " Lets save Mau now or we will have no Italian pizza in 5 town anymore and Mau will be just gone" So despite the danger I dived to the sea of tea he was there holding breath I felt.. He was not gone. I tighten my arms around Mau's chest and I was swimming to the air. Then I putted Mau on the beach. The tea people were angry I saved him they decided to throw the tea sacks on us but this was exactly what we came her to get. So we putted the tea sacks into a bag.. Then we came back to the 5-town to the 2nd area where all the gastronomy is. Aww. We got so many teas for his restaurant. That he gave half of this to me. He kissed my hands and thanked me for saving his life. Aww then we ate one good Quattro Formaggi Pizza and then I went back to my home. This was good adventurous day. Later in the evening late evening I drunk good mint tea. Dami was happy I saved Mau from death is the sea of tea. He was also happy that we will still have our best Italian pizza bar "The Mau's Pizza" in 5 town.. The mint tea helped us fell asleep and relax. This was good heroic day. Ciao.

Today I got surprise..Harry was calling me in the morning 8 am. He said open the door I got surprise for you. I opened the door and saw. OMG. Thousands of chips sacks. He said he woke at 4 am to buy all the sacks from the supermarket and give this to me. I was so happy. No one will get any sacks in the market of 5 town but he is free to buy them in the amount he wish. He smiled and looked warmly at me. I said yes I accept chips. There were lays, (even lays salt & vinegar), Hal's New York. H-E-B Brand Chips. Julio's Chips and even Mrs. Fisher's Chips Aww I love 5 town market.. we got the products from planet earth but international <3. I got even Wiejskie Ziemniaczki from Poland.. Vico chips from France, Croky from Belgium and Holland. Three Squirrels chips from China.. Calbee from japan. All those today for me. OMG Harry I love you. I hugged him happily. I was so happy. More then 1000 sacks with so many tastes aw. Thank you Harushi I said. He said you are so welcome sweet. Then we made with Damien Disco International chips. Damien just when he saw those sacs and the time he woke up fell on the ground from hard laugh. We love today. <3 I will never forget this chips wonderland. Ciao.

Today at Andrew's birthday party a miracle had happened. I posted yesterday at good memory page of 5 town that I got the chips from Harry thousands of them. Then Jeb Thomas Pina was so emotionally touched that he woke up at 4am only to give me chips that he decided to wake up at 4 am too and buy Harry every waffles in the 5 town market. He then came to the party. Gave more then 1000 waffles boxes and said he doesn't want even a single penny back cause this act was so pure and from good act he said this in public. Harry than accepted the gift and hugged Jeb then during the party Harry gave Andrew 50 boxes for good choice for Andrew. Andrew was happy This was a miraculous day I witnessed today (even if I was like a sidekick this scene just ruled). Andrew chosen waffles brands like Pegi Waffles and Thijs the Belgian ones ha ha. Good choice I though and enjoyed rest of the day. Ciao.

Today I made in midnight announcement to come to the 1st area of 5 town. A lot of citizens had come.. I said I will ask them something important to me. To my supirise 6/7 of all citizens came. +- 600 people. I then stood before them.. I asked only one question. Was I ever okay to you as the citizen of 5 town.(This was the only one question that I really wondered many years cause every citizens knows me). Then I saw thumbs above first I looked around n saw Damien, Koori, Harry with thumbs above that means I was okay to them.. then very quickly other citizens raised their thumbs above. Love this feeling. Love this sign. I saw all that crowd showed theirs thumbs their hands were all above. They are awesome citizens too. I was emotionally touched they all like me. Then I just thanked them a lot. I Said also "Thank you this is the answer I was searching my entire life cause I didn't know if I was okay enough to you all but as I see I am enough okay for you.. And you are all okay to me too. Thank you so much." Then I bowed down as sign of gratitude. And leaved the public. Then everyone went back home. I was extremely happy they though about me as okay citizen of the town. My hard work wasn't for nothing. Then I had just funny day. And I was super urged that I was okay to them. Ciao.

25th of June

Today I went with Damien to the Challenge Dimension I saw this was really other challenges not only during summer period. Today the challenge is that the female puts the chair on her head.. Dances with chair tied to her head like a summer hat. And the best part of this you must to dance 15 minutes at lest with your partner sitting on a chair and he must to read a book during you dance with him on the chair that is tied to your head. I reached the challenge I won. I was so happy we done this. I really reached my goal not only in summer July August and September but random June challenge too. If you do beside challenge dimension summer period you got always golden certificate of participation. Then Damien hugged me a lot we done this. The music we put this together as act of celebration and Danced further joyfully. We had happy June summer day. I know also from today that even people who lives in challenge dimension everyday don't do this everyday. They are self sometimes just audience who enjoy the other trying funny stuff. Then I went to Jeb Thomas Pina 2nd area of gastronomy cause after all this dancing we wanted something sweet. He offered us today peanuts flavored cake. We agreed this is the best choice. The cake was so huge. Jeb can cook so well bake so well his meals are always delicious. He makes not only western cuisines but all around the world so he is the concurrence for the Mau's pizza from Italian cuisine. He is the concurrence of all sushi bars in 2nd area. Sometimes I make even jokes he is the concurrence for my favorite Harry's Green puffs with orangeade. But Jeb said by himself that Harry Green makes lovely and yummy pastries and so long this is made with love to us this is the best pastry in the world. We agreed and we two were happy Jeb likes Harry's pasties so much. This is high quality cook in 5 town so he got experience. Aww. I've sent Harry also in an envelope a gift after we received the cake. In the envelope was a nice green phone case with golden heart and his capital letters from his name HKG. This means Harry Kenny Green. <3. I wished this will arrive in maximal speed of our magical post. Harry sent me message 5 minutes later. Thank you for the phone case. I was surprised this arrived in lightning speed. The reason why I bough this for him as an act of charity was that his old phone case had broken few days ago and he bough me all chips from the supermarket so this was just good karma coming back. Then I returned to home with Damien and ate this lovely peanut flavored cake. Ciao.

I went today to Mrs. Dara's house. She was middle aged. She had still RCA CT-100 television we couldn't stand this old model and her chair she sat on to watch TV. I went with Harry and Damien to steal this one TV and chair. They were bringing the heavy TV to the forest area and I was bringing the old passe wooden chair there. My chainsaw was in my rucksack. Then we put the old TV on the log of the tree that we use often to cut something. Then I went with max power of chainsaw. I've cut this old model into two pieces. Then I done the same with old chair. This was needed cause in 5 town we are not allowed to have old analog television only digital now days. So then we decided to buy her new one. The model we chosen was TCL QM6K QD-Mini LE and we bough also new conformable armchair and added speakers for this. This was all from our good heart cause she was the only one citizen with not normal TV. When we came to her with this gift we saw euphoria on her face. He was grateful and she hugged me. I felt I made something memorial to her that will stay in her heart forever. Am I dreaming she asked. We said This is just magic with us now inst this. Then we leaved happy the last citizen with old TV finally got nice digital new one n she can enjoy this for long long time. Then we just came to 12 area back made ourselves good fast food self made cause after so many physical work we deserve extra calories. Ciao.

I went today to Florida. To try the wall spell I conjured very high wall made by bricks. I was doing this on the abandoned area. Then I made my hair in ponytail. This was my Floridian look with huge high pony tail normal I have loose hair but there I wanted something different. So then I tried to jump through this high wall and I done this. With jumping spell I done this. This was nice. Then I went to Louisiana state I made two pigtails and I made the same wall and jumped through this then I opened the portal to Alabama I made there french braid and I jumped through the wall. Then next destination was Mississippi in Jackson I made Chignon (an elegant version of a bun) and I reached the next level of epic jump in next state. The next state was my favorite in all south, I had there loose hair again but with hat.. This was Texas there I felt always motivated this jump in Texas through the Wall in Dallas was my most enjoyable. Oh men I love Texas. Next one New Mexico welcome too next wall I made there two braids I felt like cowboy again but this was nice. Work done not yet still Arizona is waiting for me as almost last state. In Arizona my hairstyle was half-up ponytail. Then the last destination California. I had there idea to wear two buns and the rest of my hair was just loose. There it was my fire dragon called to not to only jump though the wall this time but run and jump as final act of this epic adventure. I took good breath began to run quickly three two one I made this I jumped through the last wall I conjured up. I was happy to maximum I reached the challenge I made for myself today. Then I saw in California: Damien and Koori and Harry and Mamiki and Larry (other citizen of 5 town) and Satoshi and Rin and Nagato. They said to me in the end of the evening. Oh Pretty Girl you reached very high level today you done almost impossible but u done this.. congratulations. Then we done firework feast to celebrate my adventure in southern states of USA. This was very sweet party filled with joy and extremely big ambitious American cuisine like the Texas-Style Barbecue. I loved my life today. They had nice day too and seeing me and celebrating made this even cuter. I had good day today too. Ciao.

Today Hotaru Akemi said she saw my on good news page from 5 town. She was impressed I jumped so much so she asked of I can learn her how to jump better with her magic. I agreed. She chosen to do simple jumps first they made me happy. She chosen that Today she will beat record and jump at all roofs of the 5 town in all areas. I said there are between 600 to 700 houses in town. She said she will try this. Then I agreed to watch over her. We begun to jump on the houses roofs one per one. Area per area. I knew we are now in first area it is 23:00 o clock. She must get this entire school area's houses in one hour I don't know if this will be reachable to her but I had faith she will get her record. 23:50 still 4 houses. Omg she is almost there.. 23:57 Omg still one house left. 23:58 YES!! She made this. Akemi reached her first magical record Aww. I was so proud. Leaved her nice heart card as congrats then leaved. I was standing on CBA's roof but I though oh shit this is midnight now and my house is in 12 area and this is 1st one. Damien is sure worried I will call him that I am just here. Hmm.. Harry's house is also in 5th area still far away I have so low energy battery that I wont reached even my Harry BFF house. Hmm I called Andrew cause I know he lives close here in 1st school area. He agreed to sleepover. I let this to knew to 100 people in my phone per accident cause I was so tired but this is not huge problem. I was in his living room just fell straight to the couch and fell asleep there. Ciao.

Today Fan 74 is playing the basketball so I decided to help him with his confidence. On the glass transparent roof I made small gate and gave him a white feather. He saw this. In my mind I said telepathic just believe in yourself. He agreed this was nice. Then when his team was in their final time and they were almost losing this. I called Damien that he will be I his helicopter and will per accident harmlessly put the flour from helicopter on the public so that the teams will see public for while. It happened the 100% of public was now totally white the other players were watching the public and then I said to Nick Nubbinson in this short while. Now just do this. He used this moment and shoot a final score. The team of Nick Nubbinson had won. Then when the public was gone and everyone was going home I watched from the glass roof to him. He saw me smiled softly as thank you sign. He said thank you for everything. And I answered I knew how important was your match today I'm glad you made this. Ciao.' Then I went back home happy I helped Nick with the most holy intention on earth and he was though this hard moment in his life. Ciao.

Today I was shocked.

Damien he bough me donuts, This is normal but not the way he done this. Today his favorite candy/donuts shop was closed cause people putted bombs to test if they work in ground.. Damien saw no problem in going this was he just run fast and didn't care if he died he just wanted the donuts today. The bombs in ground exploded one after another but he reached the shop without a scratch. People from shop were so shocked they gave him 6 boxes gratis. He then tried to fly with his "rucksack helicopter gadget so the way back was easier. I fell on my knees he don't this only for donuts. He gave me one of boxes. From my entire life I never though he will do act like this. I was happy he came safely home otherwise I couldn't have my husband back. Damien just smiled. Hugged me. Ate donuts with me. He just said he wanted one moment of his life that was unpredictable and totally crazy. This was his greatest adventure of this year I think. Ciao.
