Prologue

April 1

Hey men you know me from book 3 and 3.3 Rizemi's Diaries. I'm Rizemi Kome. I have power of fire I'm born in April 10. I am an Aries girl. This book is for me. My adventures. I am here and now. I was sleepy today but then had nice coffee and now I am happy. I am ready to try next diary. I write diary eagerly. I am always honest in my diary. This is also nice to write my creative ideas here. I have patience to write a diary. Nothing else works so good as diary.

Today is gray weather. I have warm at home. I fell asleep for a while. Then this was sunny back. I ate good hot dog I heat this with my own fire from my hands.

This is just my personal diary. The 3 journal of 5 Taca is done. It ended at 29,04. So this is just next part of my diaries but not 5 Taca document. If you are interested in 5 Taca documents and adventures they are documented there. This is just next part of the Diaries and not of the 3.

Hey I felt good energy flying to me. The feeling of peace. I feel this is going to be good story.

I am born at April 10 so this is going to be my birthday soon. I am so happy. There is going to be cake. And candles. And friends.

For the rest I don't know what to do today. I will just stop my day note here. Just remember that every day is a new adventure for me. I am extremely extroverted girl. I am always open to new experience and people. Ciao.

April 2

Hey men. Hello human. Hello woman. Hi hi. The life begins right here right now. New day is here. I will today lay down the grass on the blanket. So just lay down on the blanket and sleep for a while. I will nap in the fresh air. This was nice. Ciao.

April 3

Oh men I have no energy. I've run yesterday too long and now I am exhausted. I will nap for longer. It is 12 noon. Whatever. Harry-chan is my new boyfriend. Damien had leaved to Chicago. Yes this is real. We had been married. But this ended. So old cook is gone to the USA. I feel bit sad. But sometimes I don't know when he went. My life is multidimensional. But there are dimension where I am and where I am not. He is just gone. I couldn't control this.

Harry Green is second closer best friend to me. So he had become my boyfriend. Nagato went also to New York. Rize went to Greece, Mirai Asahina went to Meadow dimension. So a lot of people moved away. But Harry Green stays with me in 5 Taca forever. I was lonely and sad he leaved. So many people on Earth dimension. I still think 5 Taca is better. Anyway when your first boyfriend leaved. You can find new one. I kissed Harry a lot we hugged and cuddled and I felt in heaven that I am not more lonely. I couldn't handle solitude. So this time we are just in two. I am cuddling my new boyfriend all day. This gives me joy and soft feeling of freedom. He said that he loves me. That I am his dream come true. He is also power of fire. He can make so sweet green flames. This is better than air power. Harry is so sweet supportive prince. He always cares. I feel totally free with him. I feel so soft like a feather with him. My heart is even beating faster from time to time with him. He is also happy with me. The problem is that since you moved to planet Earth then the time flies differently than in 5 Taca. So I don't know how many times they are gone. This feels like eternity. So I can enjoy my sweet Harry. This is not betrayal since the second person is like gone forever. I wanted this sweet green eyes all for me. This pretty black hair. And yes Damien got divorced with me so I can enjoy Harry even more. I don't need any magical wedding yet. But I really just wanted partner and not be alone. I cuddled Harry for the rest of the day. Then we napped together. Me 100% safe in his arms. The fire is between us anyway. I wish this relationship will last. We kissed so many times today. Today is only romantic vibe. So today is the good first date with him. Just in my home. I have two homes since Damien leaved for no reason. Aww. Harry is just so warm. So sweet. I am happy I found new boyfriend. I forgot Rize and Nagato since they gone forever from my life. There is now only my sweet Aries boyfriend. I wish we will survive the hard time together. I just couldn't say no since he is my second male best friend. He really agreed easily to be my boyfriend.

He was gazing at me with his Shiny eyes. And said: Love you honey. <3.

I said: love you too.

This was romantic 3rd of April to me. This was my romance dream come true. I though about my sweet green prince a lot. And now he is in my arms. So maybe this is the good opportunity. Since the one door close the another opens. I wish the best for two of us.

Ciao.

4th of April

Today I went to the beach dimension. There was Koori chan in her white t-shirt. She is always with me. There was this time Honda Haru with me too. And Harry Green. I decided today to fall asleep in this group. We used magic so that we sleep enough. I then woke up. It felt like I was sleeping for a 5 thousands of years. But this helped. I am fresh back. Then good idea came to my mind. I will research people's birthday wishes and discover why some people from my life are simply gone. You know Koori chan is never gone. Jacob Rabbit is never gone from my life and 5 taca. But my boyfriend ex one is just gone without any reason. Nagato and Rize too. So I will just find the reason why some people are gone from my life and why some stayed. Ciao.

Extra notes:

After I discover this or at least a little bit. I will write my various adventures just further in part 2 of this journal.

I will write my adventures even after part two too. Till the December 31. I told you long time ago that the magical journals sometimes have conscious on their own. So, from time to time they say the date that they want. Sometimes they say the amount of pages they want to reach. This magical journal said just this.

"Rizemi my dear friend. This is the last big journal of 5 Taca, Let's write this with joy till the December 31. Then we will celebrate end of the year with big feast and parties."

I agreed with this journal. This is not too long not too short period for our journal just ideal. Very balanced and with space enough to write a lot of adventures that can happen in 5 Taca dimension. So this journal is from April 1 current year till December 31 current year. I am sure in this time period a lot of things can happen in my life and 5 town and the city area citizens too. I also asked diary.

-Hey diary. I have many titles that can call this journal. Look at his list and I let you choose.

1. 3 Rizemi and Friends
2. 3 Rizemi's Diaries 2
3. 3 Rizemi's Parties
4. 3 Rizemi's Feasts
5. 3 Rizemi's Core
6. 3.3: Rizemi's Notes
7. 333: Rizemi's Journal

Diary then answered me:

"I think Rizemi's Core is the best. This is like the essence of you that works hard on this journal. This sounds like dream come true to this diary. Let the title be 3 Rizemi's Core and let the fun begin."

Then I waved my wand and the title appeared on the first page.(Even if you seen this already this is how this came there.) Three, two, one. Let get the adventure started!

Part 1: The research of the wishes.

April 5

Today I will just not use days. So I discovered that always when you make a birthday wish they will come true but not always the way you expected. Those are few of my examples that I discovered. Those are the examples of Koori Uchuu's wishes.

Koori Uchuu wished that she is my friend no matter what.

I agree. Even in darkest time she is always with me. In hard and dark time too. In normal boring day too. So this sure will be this way forever.

Koori Uchuu wished one time that she understands poverty. Then after try 2017 she went to India. For one year. There she had almost nothing to enjoy. But she knows what a having almost nothing means.

Koori Uchuu one time wished that she is treated like a goddess. Then she went to Egypt and people treated her there well cause she is magical girl.

So those were some good example that very special birthday wishes exist.

Koori Uchuu wished one time that she beats music record. So she went a lot to the music studio's and made many many records more then 2010's songs in one year. No one ever in 5 taka made so many.

Koori Uchuu wished that after her Karaoke concert everything is going good in everyone's life. As the effect we had screwed up life till October. Then we all got chance to relax. We relaxed for months so better not wish something like this.

Koori chan also wished to find her prince from the fairy tale. As the effect she found nice boyfriend called Sarek Usk. She is happy with him.

Koori chan also wished to never know who she is. Cause there is so many chaos. As an effect she saw many dimensions.

Koori chan also wished to never know where she is. As an effect of this. She traveled even to more dimensions.

Koori chan also wished that she is only a background. As an effect of this she is not involved in the peoples life so often. She only comes to me and few trusted people and this is fine. She made this wishes cause she had too many daily madness.

Koori chan also wished to find what's really good for her faith. Through the many dimensions challenges she did not know what for faith is good for her. What does she wants to believe in. As the effect of her birthday wish she always mix and try various things from various believe systems like for example meditation with prying.

Koori chan also wanted to know what diabolic stuff means for her. As effect of this. She discovered that the old people who had nothing to loose are like the form of the devil to her. They are wise grounded and even bit unpredictable.

Koori chan also wished one time that she is just good Scorpio. As the effect of her birthday wish she is just typical Scorpio from time to time. Fiercely loyal and dark from time.

Koori chan also wished that she visit the places around the world. As the birthday effect of this. She had seen many places of the planet Earth.

Koori chan wished also very simple wish to have just funny life. Since then she had always a lot of adventure in her life. With me and other people,

So this was short list of Koori chan's birthday wishes. There were even more funnier wishes for Koori-chan.

Sarek Usk wished that Koori chan falls in love with him. This wish had been made longer time ago. This had come true. Koori chan is really his girlfriend. <3.

Reg-Chan. Wished that Koori chan has no face at all. As an effect of this Koori chan sees herself more as a cartoon character then real person from time to time.

So this was Koori-chan birthday wishes page.

I have much more people I will write about. What they wished for and how they come true. This is gonna be epic new. Book.

So just wanna add that on basis of this information I am not surprised Koori chan stayed with me in 5 Taca, She just wished to be my friend no matter what.

April 6

Today I will to say Harry Green's birthday wishes.

Harry Green wished that he and everyone around him understands beaver feelings. The effect of this birthday wish was that everyone after their life period of time just knew that beavers just want to build something in their life and this is the core for their existence. I knew this long time ago when Harry can on one day in January gave me clothes and took me to the sushi bar. I understood back then that he just wants to build a good stable day with me like a real beaver prince. This was nice.

Harry Green wished one time for his birthday that he is just good person. So the effect of this wish is that he creates good karma around him. He can also do good acts like a good human,

Harry Green wished also that he has endless amount of Happina in his life. He thought that this orangeade is even addictive so he always has this close to him.

Harry Green also wished that his close people around him also has a lot of Happina in their life. As effect of this wish. People around him can always enjoy this good drink. Good orangeade that improves our mood. I like to drink this with him cause I know he has always a lot of this yummy orangeade.

Harry wished also that he is just sexy man. He thought then that his life is very boring and unorganized and if someone thinks he is sexy man this can improve his mood and well being. So the effect of this is that even I from time to time think Harry Green is sexy man. We are even boyfriend and girlfriend now. So this is nice. Being sexy man is possible. I have no problem that he made this wish. <3.

Harry Green wished that he is bit of yandere type for fun. As the effect of this wish he couldn't find any girlfriend cause he was too possessive one and too quickly jealous. But now I am with him. And I still think he is giving me enough of space. Even if he is very clingy.

Harry Green wished also for his birthday that any mental sickness exist for him and his closest people. As the effect of this wish he is very healthy men. People close to him are also feeling good healthy. I really felt very huge mental freedom since I am with my Harry boy.

Harry Green also wished that he beats bunny. As the effect of this birthday wish he is always eager to cuddle and care for you and others. I really can say that Harry cares a lot for me. <3,

Harry Green also wished that everyone who hurts me gets revenge. As the effect of this birthday wish every enemy of my across dimensions had very bad sad and painful life.

Harry Green also wished that I can always make a nice art. As the effect of this birthday wish I can always express myself freely through art of all kind and this always feels nice. Never hard or painful. Art that I do feels nice to my heart.

Harry Green wished also that he has very stable life. As the effect of this he had everything he wished for group of beavers and good school grades but this felt bit too melancholic for him.

After this he wished that his life is very unstable. As the effect of this he just had every magical stuff around him he wished for but no friendships and very unknown risky day like when he made too big loan in 5TB. But qua magical tricks he had everything.

Then after searching for balance he wished that he has just normal life. When he made this wish. I came to his life I am normal girlfriend of him we laugh with each other and we enjoy daily life from day to day and we love happy normal moments in life.

Harry Green also wished that he is good magician. As the effect of this. Beside his fire power he can conjure literally anything he wish for and knows a lot of more then typical magician of CBA. So Harry Green is very good wizard. <3.

Harry Green also wished that I win lottery no matter what. As the birthday effect of this wish. I after hard work in the BIG SHIET company moved to 5 Taca Bank. I have many money there and a good job.

Harry Green also wished that I am so famous person that everyone in the multiverse knows me. As the effect of this birthday wish. Everyone even stranger recognizes me and I have good social life and this is very easy to communicate with the another person. This made my social life much more better and happier. So thank you Harry.

So this was all birthday wishes I found so far. Tomorrow I will continue my research. But on basis of this birthday wishes I am not surprised I fell in love with Harry if he made so many good wished with good intention for me. See you tomorrow diary. Ciao.

April 7

Today I found next birthday wishes made by my friends. But those are the few of those that Jacob Rabbit made.

Jacob Rabbit wished to be wealthy healthy and free. As the effect of this he is in good health he opened the chocolate factory so he is wealthier then the most of this Rabbit family. And he spends a lot of time alone so he is very free.

Jacob Rabbit wished to meet me again. As the affect of this birthday wish. I met him at hotel one time and we had good nice romantic date with dinner many time. So yes there were a lot of dinner dates. I just met him after long long time I was busy with my life. But when we met we made good dinner date.

Jacob Rabbit made the birthday wish that celery never exist. As the effect of this birthday wish this vegetable just disappeared from his menu forever.

Jacob Rabbit wished that he has good relationship with the artist person. As the effect of this birthday wish he has good contact with people who makes art of all kind.

Jacob Rabbit wished that his birthday last forever. As the effect of this birthday wish he can make his birthday longer then the average person. Everyone who knows him just have enough of time at this day to do whatever they wish for. This also flies then at slow pace so that everyone has enough of time to enjoy this beautiful international dance day. So this is also one of my favorite days.

Jacob Rabbit also wished that I always get an omen or a sign that he is thinking about me. As the effect of this wish I hear the name Jacob all over and over and over again very often for example in television or on the truck or even at random conversations.

Jacob Rabbit also wished that I visit a specific caste. As the effect of this birthday wish. I will get a message when this is right place. There is a lot of castles but Jacob said this must to be very similar to his image he has in mind castle. So this still had not come true. But when I will visit similar castle to this he had in mind I will get message from him.

Jacob Rabbit wished also that I will beat South Park show somehow, As the effect of this birthday wish. I can get a lot of problems but I can always laugh a bit and learn from them in my own life of crazy and magical problems. So I can laugh with my problems thanks to this wish.

Jacob Rabbit also wished that he looks endless young. I can agree that always when I see him he looks very young and sweet even if he is born with white hair. So no matter the dimension he had been in he looks always so sweet young and attractive.

Jacob Rabbit also wished that he can transform into the snake. The reason why he done this was because he wished to be strong and healthy. So he knows how this creature feels even if he is just Rabbit person. This was bit wow but real wish.

So this were small data about Jr's wishes. Tomorrow I will do further research. Ciao.

April 8

Today I will search further for birthday wishes. I even found few ones made by Kanadema. Kanadema wished that she always looks good in red. This came true. Everyone says that she looks good in red.

Kanadema wished for her birthday that people disappear completely from Earth so that she can have peacefully time alone. This came true in form that everyone leaves her alone from a while. So that she can be in quiet and recharge.

Kanadema wished that she will find someone at the same day and the same year. She found Harry Green he is also born at 23. Harry is in March and She is in July but they are both 23 day of the month.

Kanadema wished for her birthday that she always looks good at the pictures. The effect of this is that she is till now day very photogenic.

Kanadema wished for her birthday to always give hard love. The effect of this is that when someone loves her she loves back so the love between person and Kanadema is very strong.

Those were some good wishes. I also found some made for me Rizemi:

Kanadema wishes for her birthday that I also look good at the pictures no matter what. The effect of this is that I look always good at mostly of my pictures. So I am thankful to this.

Candy from 5 town wished that I will make three books in my life and that I will have great celebration at April 11 at her birthday. Hey I done one journal with everyone in 3. I wrote my journal diary. I also writing this for fun. XD. Hey so I think third book will wait for me.

Harry Green wished that I will be successful at study and literature. The effect of this is that I can read a lot of books in time to time. XD. This is why I ordered book junkie sweater.

Since he made this wish for me my reading skills improved.

Bill Nikko wished that people treats me like a pharaoh. So this came true in form that I can relax from time to time very hard. And people close to me like Harry treat me very royal and with respect. So I am grateful for this wish.

Nagato Kome wished that my daily life looks like 50 dollars. This came true in the form that my days are okay and I am busy with finance.

Rize Kome wished for her birthday that I can solve the problems the masculine way.

Sometimes the problems in 5 town are so big that no one can solve them normally. But this came true in form that I can solve the issue sometimes like a man. Just keep going be strong and fight the problem till the end.

Miko Furuda wished that I can make lyrics. This came true in form that sometimes a good text pop up in my head with the melody and I can record then in 5 town studio so I feel musically free.

Miko Furuda also wished for me that my works sells in the millions of copies. This still had not come true but sometimes people from 5 town are buying my products and this is nice. \

Mei Kino wished that she meets star of 5 town.(me). This came true in the form that she moved to 5 town. But the contact wasn't very well so we just met and she just moved to 5 town. So the effect of this birthday wish was very weak. But yet came true.

Koori chan wished that she meets me randomly at Rinka karaoke place when she does the live and when she sings. This come true in form that I was very exhausted after 5 TB work but yet with my last source of energy I went there and I watched Koori chan sings for a while. I made big effort to go there but yet I done this for her for my BFF.

Girl called Fadie wishes that I pass the subject magical creatures psychology and behavior for the first time. This came true in the form that I don't pass this hobby subject but I am more organized somehow and I can make movies and short clips well. So I don't know in which attention she made this but this became complete something else. And yes longer time ago I done hobby course but without success. Tomorrow I'll work further. Ciao.

April 9

Today I will search for new birthday wishes. There was also interesting one made by Damien Rose.

Damien Rose said something like this as a wish for his birthday." all problems are stupid so I wish that all problems will solve themselves and we will have just good time in live without any problems." This was very kind birthday wish.

Damien also wished for his birthday that all people who upset him and wasn't kind to him get revenge in the murder hornet style. This came true in the from that every enemy and even mostly of my buddies got screwed up job life. And in this period of time my carrier was blooming and was very successful. This was one of his most original wishes.

Damien Rose also wished for his birthday to not to exist at all. I am then not surprised the distance between us is from time so huge.

Damien Rose wished also that he from time to time becomes real ghost. The effect of this was that he is sometimes very away from everyone and really can change into friendly or unfriendly ghost.

Damien Rose also by boredom made wish that everyone let him rest in peace. The effect is that even I give him space cause he is vibrating with some kind of death vibration after this birthday wish, Damien Rose also wished to be sexually pure person. The effect of this birthday wish is that we made not very frequently out in bed. And that he is not always eager to do this.

Damien Rose wished also that all the sickness from his life heals and go away. In the effect of this wish he is very healthy man.

Damien Rose wished also that I beat Chicago somehow. In effect of this birthday wish I can have a lot of fun and I love pop corn since he made this birthday wish. I eat more pope corn then the mostly people in Chicago.

Damien Rose also made wish that he is good Gemini. Since this birthday wish he has a lot of typical Gemini character traits. Like the love for fun. And love to laugh.

Damien Rose also made the birthday wish that all my baddest memory disappear. So since this I am not thinking about my past mistake. I just go on with the flow.

Damien Rose also made wish that he always have helping arm around him. The effect of this birthday wish is that I he has always someone to help him. Sometimes he also have friendly arm from the arm dimension with the eyes and smiley that helps him with daily tasks. This long friendly arm is so weird but always so kind. It has even shining blue eyes. <3.

Damien Rose also made a birthday wish that he can turn into orange whenever he wish. The effect of this is that he can be incognito everywhere casue he is just a simple fruit and watch people living their live everywhere where orange is. His favorite color is black and orange since he made this wish. Everything that smells like orange is good for him since this day.

Damien Rose also wished to go to hell for his birthday. The effect of this birthday is that he knows what hell is and had adventure there.

Damien Rose also wished that he goes to heaven. The effect of this birthday wish is that he knows what heaven is. Sometimes he has everything good going in his life even more special then 5 taca dimension. Everything just is heavenly in his life.

Damien Rose also made wish to go to purgatory. The effect of this birthday wish is that he knows what this place is. He had also adventure there.

Okay this were birthday wishes of my ((ex) boyfriend) friend Damien Rose. Still the effect of so many birthday wishes is that almost no one knows where he is. Maybe he didn't go to Chicago at all. Maybe he is just my orange in the kitchen or the invisible ghost and watches me from my home for some Gemini reason. Who cares. I will go to bed. Ciao.

April 10

Today is my birthday. I am so happy. Today I will reveal few of my birthday wishes. And make new one. So I wished long time ago to have countless wishes. Today I got also chainsaw from Koori chan like each year. Each year someone from my buddies gives me chainsaw as birthday gift. I accepted chainsaw from Koori chan I thanked her a lot and I hugged her.

This is the list of the wishes I made today. Some are totally random.

- I wish that my problems never exists.
- I wish that I have always a lot of energy to the stuff I like.
- I wish that Harry Green always loves me since we made new relationship not long time ago.
- I wish Jacob Rabbit will always support me no matter what.
- I wish all my friends will read about me from time to time like I am reading about them.
- I wish that I am still just lucky girl
- I wish I will know where Damien is.
- I wish to know where my friends are
- I wish to meet all my friends no matter what. From time to time I miss them all.
- I wish that I have always the motivation.
- I wish to make good memories in my life.
- I wish that I have endless income like always
- I wish that Harry Green will always smell good.
- I wish that Harry Green is very loved.
- I wish that red color is always good color for me.
- I wish that Harry will make out with me since I don't know when Damien went.
- I wish that since Damien can be orange that I will never eat him per accident. Only orange that is real orange not the orange with Damien inside.
- I wish for carefree life
- I wish to be happy
- I wish that my hearts desire will come true no matter what but only real one.
- I wish for freedom

Then I blew the candles. Yes I thought those things a lot and I written this down on the paper. And then blew the candles. This was very spiritual and happy and carefree moment. Somehow I feel that this day is very special. I had today cherries and whipped cream and berries cake. Harry Green was with me today. Damien too (like the orange that I put on the table with the hope this will be just him). Koori chan is also here. She painted her hair black last time for fun. But then it turned out to be just a funny wig she used for prank. So today this was small birthday. Jacob Rabbit also came to me with cupcakes with cherry on top. Jeb Thomas Pina came to me with the pineapple juice. And cookies. Nick Nubbison also came to me just with eclairs. So this was very nice celebration. I listened to music with them danced with them. This was sunny and very friendly day. We were partying till the last hour of the day. I even looked at my birthday diary and I wanna share other very random wishes I made long time ago here before midnight. So I wished long time ago also that:

- Nothing in my life will be shitty
- No motherfer in my life exist
- That I have Happa always when I want to cause it is good orangeade. <3.
- That Every bad person from my life is just gone.
- That I listen to the music always with pleasure.

So I've written here what I wished for long time ago. I see the clock 12:00 Midnight!

He wished that French language is for everyone romantic. This came true in the from that whenever he goes people feel something sweet romantic to French.

He wished that Dutch is very easy for self expression. This came true in form that people who know him and know dutch can express themselves well qua something simple. Like what they feel about a topic. This is easy to know then if they like this or they don't like this topic or subject.

He wished that his life is very simple. So this came true in form that he is most simple character here in this journal and has very simple average and nice days.

He wished that Jeb Thomas Pina likes pineapple no matter what. This came true in from that Jeb always likes something that tastes like pineapple. <3,

He wished that vodka tastes always well for him. I need sometimes warm in the cold days and this shit is bitter but I wanna catch up some warmth for colder days. So this came true in form that he likes this when he needs to warm up for example during winter or in colder dimensions.

He wished that he always like the sun. This came true in form that he simply enjoy sunny days.

He wished reverse of my 9 year. The last one was too overworked one. So this 9 year of mine will be just relaxed and happy.

I've sent the message for Nikko Bill. He said this: She changed the dimension cause she wished something like the endless flowers. <3.

Then I thanked Bill for his magical clairvoyance. Maybe this is real reason. Mirai is Taurus. She loves flower and nature so I think there I not more reasons behind this. If someone from 5 taca wants endless flowers so I think meadow dimension is better then 5 taca. I will officially say that the Asahina's Mirai file is closed and the mystery of her new place is solved. <3,
