Welcome to the Stage of Shadows

Turn up the music and sharpen your pencils—the concert is about to begin, but the real show happens in the shadows!

Welcome to the world of K-Pop Demon Hunters, where the glitz and glamour of the idol world collide with a secret war against the supernatural. By day, these idols rule the charts, dazzling millions with their perfect choreography and chart-topping hits. But when the stage lights dim and the crowds disperse, they trade their microphones for mystical weapons to protect the world from the dark forces lurking in the night.

Inside these pages, you will find a collection of high-fashion warriors, terrifying monsters, and dynamic action scenes waiting for your creative touch. From backstage battles to neon-lit city showdowns, every page invites you to bring this thrilling universe to life. Whether you want to design the ultimate stage outfit or color the fiery energy of a magical attack, the choice is yours. So grab your colors, pick your bias, and get ready to join the hunt.

The beat drops now. Are you ready to fight?
