The Girl and the Poet

a connection like an invisible band

2026

Prologue

This book invites you to immerse yourself in the surreal thoughts, hopes, and longings of two protagonists; in their inner world and their silent exchange.

She is simply herself. Young. Searching. Full of dreams. In her mind, she encounters a poet, well-read, wise, and shaped by life. He carries within him the experience of many paths and recognizes beauty even in the quietest moments.

Over time, a special connection develops between them. Not from physical closeness, but from thoughts. Not from certainty, but from experiences, hopes, and their differing perspectives on life.

In their surreal togetherness, they meet at certain moments on a shared timeline, in two worlds that can only truly become one in the imagination.

Reality and fantasy touch in those rare moments when thoughts, hopes, and longings merge into a shared reality.

Their encounter creates a surreal world full of emotions, dreams, and visions. At the same time, a question arises: "Will they find the courage to cross the inner threshold of doubt, fear, and uncertainty in order to truly connect in their own artistic way?"
