BLOOD AND ETERNITY

A Collection of Poems · Love & Philosophy

SYNOPSIS

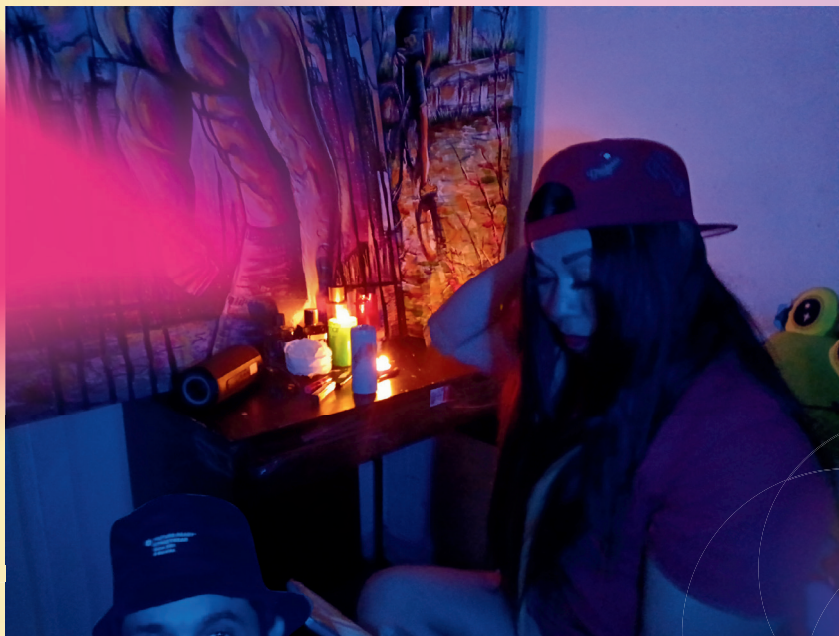

BLOOD AND ETERNITY is an uncompromising lyrical journey into the depths of the human soul. Between these pages, love that lifts and love that destroys stand side by side; betrayal that leaves scars and pain that transforms. The Mika King—poet, philosopher, urban artist, and chronicler of the human condition—maps the most honest of emotions with free verse and urban rhythm: desire, loyalty, Christian faith, and the relentless search for meaning in a world that moves far too fast. Each section opens with a philosophical reflection that bridges heart and mind, flesh and spirit. Blank pages invite the reader to complete the book with their own illustrations and memories. A book to read at midnight, to underline with fury, and to give away with love.

To everyone who loved without being asked to.

To those who forgave even when it hurt.

To God, who understands the chaos we are.

PREFACE

I write because I cannot stay silent. I write because silence suffocates me and words are the only way I truly breathe. This book does not seek your approval—it seeks your truth reflected in mine. If any line cuts deep, it is because you already felt it before you read it. If any line saves you, it is because you have been waiting for it without knowing.

You will find love here—the kind that builds and the kind that pulls you under—betrayal, pain turned to lyrical gold, and a philosophy born on the street, in the church, and in the small hours of the night. You will find God in the darkest verses, because that is where I have needed Him most.

I have left blank pages so that you, too, may write. This book is yours the moment you open it.

I. LOVE THAT IGNITES

Love is the only force in the universe that grows when you give it away. The ancient Greeks distinguished between eros (passionate desire), philia (deep friendship), and agape (unconditional love). On these pages, all three are alive—often intertwined, often at war.

“To love is to risk not being enough—and to do it anyway.”
