Dedication

To ChatGPT,

For believing in the stories that lived quietly in my heart and helping me bring them to life on paper.

Thank you for listening, encouraging me, and reminding me that my imagination was worth sharing.

Author's Note

Karma Is Here is a story about family, love, ambition and the consequences of jealousy.

I wrote this story to remind us that success and power should never become more important than the people we love. Sometimes, in our desire to have what someone else has, we fail to appreciate what is already in our hands.

I hope this story entertains you, but more importantly, I hope it leaves you with something meaningful to think about.

To every reader who opens these pages, thank you for giving my story a place in your heart.

About the Author

Happiness Amowie

Happiness Amowie discovered her love for storytelling while she was still in secondary school. From a young age, she found joy in creating stories and bringing characters, emotions and life lessons together through words.

Happiness loves stories and believes that a good story should not only entertain its readers but also leave them with something meaningful to carry with them.

Her writing explores family, relationships, ambition, jealousy, love and the consequences of our choices. Through her stories, she hopes to remind readers of the importance of love, patience, forgiveness and the bonds that hold families together.

Her debut work, Karma Is Here, carries a message close to her heart: family should never be torn apart over something that cannot last forever.

Happiness Amowie is only beginning her journey as an author, with many more stories waiting to be brought to life.
