BRIEFING

THE AUTHOR

Danny Demeersseman (1964) is a psychologist and massage therapist. In his practice near Ghent, Belgium – www.dekrachtbron.be – he combines coaching with massage therapy (including workplace massage programs) and teaches massage courses.

He enjoys guiding people through their inner wilderness, helping them find calm, clarity, and structure in their lives.

As an author, he enjoys exploring new worlds and enthusiastically guiding readers through them.

In his first book, Burn-out: Time to Make a You Turn!, he takes readers on a unique inner journey to discover the caterpillar within themselves. Along the way, they learn how burnout can become an opportunity for transformation, allowing them to emerge as a unique butterfly.

“Man must find his highest happiness in his personality.”

— Johann Wolfgang von Goethe —

A selection of his books:

- 50 Techniques for Shiatsu Chair Massage
- Burn-out – Time to Make a You Turn
- Integrated Head Massage
- Abdominal Massage Course
- The Stress Management Suitcase
- Sudoku variant - Sugurlines
- Killer Sudoku – Solving Tips
- Mystery Number Sudoku (a new sudoku variant)
- Chess Sudoku Variants

THE KILLER ISN'T NEAR MALI

What is: The Killer Isn't Near Mali?

Your best friend George has been accused of murder.

The police have one suspect: George. But George is a crime journalist, and he has left you his personal case file – a dossier of 5,200 persons of interest.

The Killer Isn't Near Mali introduces a completely new kind of murder mystery puzzle.

A killer is hiding among 5,200 names in George's dossier. Using 17 carefully crafted clues, you must narrow down the enormous suspect list, uncover the criminal's identity, and prove George's innocence.

Part detective story, part logic puzzle, and part treasure hunt, this unique challenge will test your observation skills, reasoning ability, and determination to solve the perfect crime.

Do you have what it takes to crack the case?

The clock is ticking

You arrive at your friend George's apartment, where the two of you had agreed to meet. The street is packed with police cars. Red and blue lights flash through the evening fog. Something is terribly wrong.

Inside, a grim scene awaits you. George's wife lies dead on the living room floor. She was killed with a single, precise stab wound. The murder weapon has vanished without a trace.

George is also gone.

A detective approaches and studies you carefully.

"We found four things in this apartment," he says.

- A corpse.
- A cryptic note reading: The Killer Isn't Near Mali.
- A sheet containing 17 clues.
- A USB stick with one large file.

At first glance, the USB file looks ordinary. But it is not. The file contains 5,200 names. Every entry includes information about the suspects: first name, shoe size, special trait, and means of transport. Moreover, it contains information related to a planned murder: murder weapon, time of the murder, hair color, and motive for the murder. Somewhere among those 41,600 pieces of evidence hides the real murderer.

The police believe the case is already solved. Their prime suspect is George. The body and the evidence were found in his apartment. And now he has disappeared.

But you know George. You know he could never commit such a crime.

Now he is missing. Is he hiding? Has he fled? Or is he in danger himself? Nobody knows. While the police focus on the wrong man, the real killer remains free.

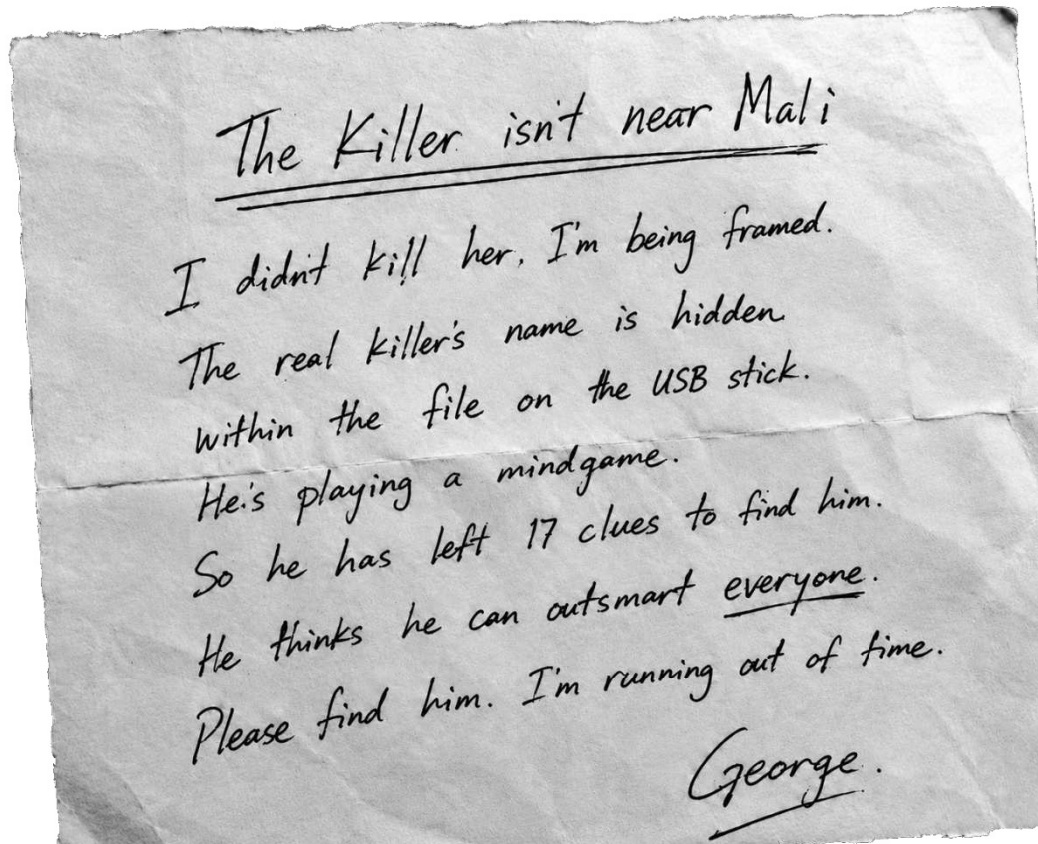

The only way to clear George's name is to solve the puzzle hidden within the clues and the file on the USB stick. Can you eliminate thousands of innocent suspects and identify the one person who matches every clue?

If The Killer Isn't near Mali ... who is?

Turn the page. Begin the investigation. George is counting on you.

The cryptic note

At the crime scene, a cryptic note was also discovered, scrawled in hurried handwriting, in which George appears to be proclaiming his innocence.

The Killer isn't near Mali
I didn't kill her, I'm being framed.
The real killer's name is hidden
within the file on the USB stick.
He's playing a mindgame.
So he has left 17 clues to find him.
He thinks he can outsmart everyone.
Please find him. I'm running out of time.
George.

THE 17 CLUES

Before you start

Never forget this: The Killer Isn't Near Mali.

Each suspect is an entry with eight attributes: first name, shoe size, special trait, means of transport, murder weapon, time of the murder, hair color, and motive for the murder.

How to eliminate (clues 1–16)

Clues 1 through 16 each describe a condition. If a clue is TRUE for at least one attribute of an entry, eliminate that entire entry. Example: if the shoes size is a prime number (clue 3), cross out the entire entry.

After applying all of the clues, only three names of suspects will remain.

The deciding clue (clue 17 - The Killer Isn't Near Mali)

Clue 17 does not eliminate anyone. It tells you how to find the killer among the three remaining suspects.

DISCLAIMER

The USB file is a work of fiction. Any resemblance to real persons, living or dead, or actual events is purely coincidental.

Clue 3 is about prime numbers. You'll need these numbers: 37, 41, 43, 47

THE LIST OF 17 CLUES

The first 10 clues relate to the suspects' first names, shoe sizes, special traits, and the means of transport by which they escaped.

CLUES	DESCRIPTION OF CLUES 1 TO 10
Clue 1	If the suspect's first name has exactly as many letters as the number of sides on a standard die, cross out the entire entry.
Clue 2	If the suspect's first name contains any of the following double consonants (bb, ff, kk, ll, mm, nn, pp, rr, ss, tt), cross out the entire entry.
Clue 3	If the suspect's shoe size is a prime number, cross out the entire entry.
Clue 4	If the suspect's shoe size is divisible by 3, cross out the entire entry.
Clue 5	If the suspect's shoe size is exactly equal to the minutes of the murder time (the two-digit number after the colon), cross out the entire entry.
Clue 6	If the suspect's special trait contains the word piercing, scar, or tattoo, cross out the entire entry.
Clue 7	If the suspect's special trait consists of two words separated by a space, cross out the entire entry.
Clue 8	If the means of transport consists of two words separated by a space, cross out the entire entry.
Clue 9	If the suspect's means of transport is any of the following water vehicles – canoe, hovercraft, jet ski, kayak, pedal boat, sailboat, or speedboat – cross out the entire entry.
Clue 10	If the suspect's means of transport ends with bike , cross out the entire entry.

The clues from 11 to 16 relate to the crime scene. It concerns the murder weapon, the time of the murder, a hair fiber from the perpetrator, and the motive for the murder.

CLUES	DESCRIPTION OF CLUES 11 TO 16
Clue 11	If the murder weapon's first letter is one of the letters in the word weapon (W, E, A, P, O, N), cross out the entire entry.
Clue 12	If the murder weapon is any of the following sports-related items – barbell weight, baseball bat, baseball in a sock, cricket bat, dumbbell, golf club, hockey stick, ice skate, kettlebell, or pool cue – cross out the entire entry.
Clue 13	If the time of the murder is after 07:45 and before 11:15, cross out the entire entry.
Clue 14	If the hair color matches any of the following colors – gray, iron gray, pewter, salt□and□pepper, silver, steel gray, or white – cross out the entire entry.
Clue 15	If the motive for murder is NOT any of the following – blackmail, debts, fraud, gambling debts, hush money, inheritance, life insurance, loan, money, money dispute – cross out the entire entry.
Clue 16	If the motive for murder contains the letter M, cross out the entire entry.

CLUE 17	THE KILLER ISN'T NEAR MALI
---------	----------------------------

Use this last clue to determine which of the 3 remaining suspects is the real murderer. Don't forget: I love anagrams!
