
Ghana,
the Heart of the World
Ananse's Guide to Our Land, Our Things and Our Future
A story-and-activity book for Ghanaian children.

Welcome, young nation-builders!

Ghana is not at the edge of the story.
Ghana is a living heart of the world.
Our land, our knowledge and our choices can help shape tomorrow.

Draw one thing
you love about Ghana.

Our land gives us life

Rivers give water.
Soil grows food.
Forests shelter life.
The sea gives us fish.
When we care for the land,
the land cares for us.

Circle the places that need care.

custodianship = caring for what is entrusted to us
