The Reports of Judgments and Decisions is an official publication of the European Court of Human Rights containing a selection of key judgments and decisions of the Court with summaries prepared by the Registry. For the years 2007 and onwards the selection has been made by the Bureau¹ of the Court following a proposal by the Jurisconsult².

With the exception of decisions by single judges, all the Court's judgments and decisions, including those not published in this series, can be consulted online in the HUDOC database at <http://hudoc.echr.coe.int>.

Note on citation

The form of citation for judgments and decisions published in this series from 1 November 1998 follows the pattern: name of case (in italics), application number, paragraph number (for judgments), abbreviation of the European Court of Human Rights (ECHR), year and (for the years 1999 to 2007 inclusive) number of volume.

In the absence of any indication to the contrary the cited text is a judgment on the merits delivered by a Chamber of the Court. Any variation from that is added in brackets after the name of the case: "(dec.)" for a decision on admissibility, "(preliminary objections)" for a judgment concerning only preliminary objections, "(just satisfaction)" for a judgment concerning only just satisfaction, "(revision)" for a judgment concerning revision, "(interpretation)" for a judgment concerning interpretation, "(striking out)" for a judgment striking the case out, "(friendly settlement)" for a judgment concerning a friendly settlement. If the judgment or decision has been given by the Grand Chamber of the Court, "[GC]" is added after the name of the case or after the case description that appears in brackets.

Examples

The European Court of Human Rights is an international court based in Strasbourg and part of the Council of Europe. It rules on individual or inter-State applications alleging violations of the rights and freedoms set out in the European Convention on Human Rights by any of the Council's 47 member States. The Court's case-law makes the Convention a powerful living instrument for consolidating the rule of law and democracy in Europe.

The Reports of Judgments and Decisions is the official series of leading cases selected by the most senior judges at the Court because of their high jurisprudential interest. Each judgment and decision is published in English and French and is preceded by a summary – including case description, keywords and key notions – for ease of reference. The Reports are primarily designed for legal professionals, libraries and academics and complement the case-law information available on the Court's website (www.echr.coe.int).
