Introduction

Once there were two girls who fell in love with the same apple pie.

They both went to Precious Treasures School in Turks and Caicos, but you had to be there to see how the magic happened.

First day of school

On opening day at Precious Treasures School, the principal, Mrs. Hutchinson, mad an announcement.

"we will be learning about apples this school semester, and to get things started, we will have a contest.

Whoever bring the biggest apple to his teacher will win a special prize.

The judging will take place on Friday.

Good luck to everyone."
