NATURE IS ALMIGHTY

It is probably well-intentioned by the early Indian authors who tampered with their own texts in the original Vedas (the Prakrit verses) and then created the Bhagavad-Gita from here as the universal sacred book of Hinduism, and thereby our progenitor Vishnuh has given a leading role, as being the creator of the Universe.

... But the truth is very different because Vishnu (h) and the ensuing Vishnuism have nothing to do with Hinduism.

8.Vishnuh-Society

a. ... The Vishnuh-Society is entirely separate from Hinduism and thus does not wish to be associated, even though the Hindus expressed "Vishnu (h)" as their chief god and afforded him all kinds of amazing powers.

b. ... Remember; mortals can not conjure or create miracles like these are attributed in the Bhagavad-Gita to the blue gods, and our ancestor Vishnu has nothing to do with the idiotic philosophy of life nor with the former barbaric method and the inhumane practices of the Hindu Gods. And Vishnuh-Society also wishes to have nothing to do with this ...

c. ... We are Vishnuïst (read Visnoewist) who profess Vishnuïsm, and the Vishnuïsm is a philosophy or philosophical movement, that denies the existence and can existence of gods.

d. ... Originally Vishnuïsm originated from the Sanskrit word Vishnu(h), which means "the self", "themselves", "single", containing the name of the developer Vishnu(h) of the Vishnuïsm ...

Non-Religious Society

9.Vishnuh-Society

e. ... The original word specifies what the Vishnuism really means, that man is central. The Vishnuism is an active denial of any divine reality whatsoever and emphatically states that Nature is the creator of life.

f. ... Vishnuists assume that from the very beginning of existence Nature is the cause of everything and therefore rejects the notion of a divine creator of the universe.

Originally

... Thus, said the teaching of Vishnuh:

... "Originally, before religions arose, the notions of Allah and God included the identification of Nature / Universe, in harmony, in peace, in unity and salvation for the nations who respected nature as she was."

Today, contrary to the above, the present concepts in all so-called holy scriptures include the curse that religious humanity experiences for the deformation of the originality and for all that she has created to the detriment of nature. This is one of the main reasons why a curse rests on all religions.

10.Vishnuh-Society

... Thus, the expressions "God, Allah, Yahweh, etc." originated from the Universe, which was perpetrated by malicious people of all kinds of alloys thousands of years ago and represented as the creator of nature and the universe.

Then religious humanity has chronicled the creation in its thinking, distorted by selfishness and then calibrated to oppression, used for genocide, and moreover infested with all that goes against human nature to the detriment of all Nature, or the Universe has so far produced!

... This theft of nature's own things cannot be left undisturbed so that the time and the right of nature to take revenge on the former thieves and their offspring, who continue and propagate this theft are already in full swing. This means the destruction of God-related humanity and in which the universe restores itself in its pure originality.

Non-Religious Society

11.Vishnuh-Society

Allah, God, and other gods are in their originality one and the same, just as Nature and the Universe are one unit.

... So, God/ Allah is not what the evil religious humanity ever made in their favour and according to its own street, but the concepts in question were adulterated by hypocritical humanity and expressed in its own mind that it only belongs to nature/ the universe.

... If rehabilitation of NATURE regarding "God and Allah" has not been made by religions as well as the destruction of their scriptural fabrications, the curse of religious humankind will continue to rage until the complete destruction of their values, norms, and religious civilization.

... Nature has created everything with the instinctive tendency to the conservation of the species with the aim of making life more pleasant for everyone and to survive in the earthly realities on this planet. Give back to nature what is nature and leave everything to the Universe that belongs to the universe.

Non-Religious Society

12.Vishnuh-Society

... Indeed ... God is great .... Allah is great, but this does not concern the God of the Bible or to Allah from the Qur'an and appear in the so-called holy scriptures of other religions of the world. But the only dual unit, which is indeed great, is only the spirit of the Universe, which includes Nature.

Nature is great!

PEACE IS A SHORT DURATION

Peace is a matter of time, applied by the majority in a religious society to arbitrariness. Peace is thus not permanent, but always goes as far as the eye reaches. This is because peace and mutual unity in a religious society do not go together.

There are double divisions and distrusts in this world, both of which have been acquired by people who have placed themselves on a higher pedestal and are thus higher than others. Thus, faithful humanity, like the unbelievers in this earthly life, has no faith in each other.

Thus, says Vishnu's teaching:

"Who trusts his own shadow is on the path of carelessness because it could be the alleged shadow of the arch enemy. Do not put salt on all slag but always be careful."

---

Non-Religious Society

... So, do not be paranoid. Always keep the assurance of the uncertainty and never seduce yourself to the treason of the other, even if it is your worst enemy. But who has trusted his ex-enemy, has lost the battle for a long time.

... For righteous naturalists, the standard applies, "always trust those who are in your unity, equal mind and nature-bound, and nobody else, not those who deal with the material.

... Let betrayal be upon those who have the intrusion of jealousy and treacherousness. The betrayal of the fellow man is the lowest of the poorest, and all that relates to this is the religious beliefs of the faithful humanity, related to their self-invented god."

Non-Religious Society

15.Vishnuh-Society

Whoever is in nature does not accept denunciation, nor for revenge for what the other has done to you. Revenge is a personal matter and may not be associated with betrayal. Furthermore, no one should betray for a reward nor for the legal system of the government, or for anything.

... Let creatures, who are usually dealt with unfaithfulness, dip their own beans. Government, agencies, and people seeking information about the other, should go for themselves by their made God, who, according to the Bible, is omnipotent and omniscient.

Thus, says Vishnu's teaching:

"Who is pleasing for himself or for the other, based on personal revenge, should act according to the natural proposition" a thumb for a thumb, an ear for an ear, a scalp for a scalp "and should always be taciturn executed.

Non-Religious Society

16.Vishnuh-Society

... In this all, do not ever fear for God, nor for the devil, because God and Satan do not exist, and they do not betray anyone but are more righteous than their followers. Regarding silence, the gods are the most dependable.

... But "Always fear the eyes, the ears and the mouth of man. After the traitor has been completely silent, fear nothing and nobody else, because he/she is dead.

... In general, no steps should be taken to endanger innocent people and for which you may regret it later.

... Never let anyone know that you are dissatisfied with what the other has done to you. Always dull down and always say "I'm sorry", even if you were not guilty of what happened causing you to be disadvantaged and awakened your displeasure. This is so that the suspicion does not fall upon you when that other is accidentally or materially compromised.

Non-Religious Society

17.Vishnuh-Society

... Make it clear that everything is being won, so that the aggressor continues to misbehave, thereby losing sight of his prudence and weakness, thus making the justification for revenge on the person concerned to reinforce the steps to be taken.

... Taking revenge on the other is as well as fighting an "unpleasant necessity" that nobody else is concerned with than you and the one who deserves his punishment.

..." It is high time that the elite, the government apparatus, and the nobility in society, including officials, magistrates, commissioners, police, judges, teachers, mayor, king, etc., literally and figuratively with their Nose on the facts are printed."

Non-Religious Society

18.Vishnuh-Society

---

Thus, says the teaching of Vishnuh:

All religions lost their rights centuries ago since they have never respected human rights from the moment, they started their religion. The only rights that religious humanity currently has are the right to silence and the right to dismantle their religion. Nothing more!"

Non-Religious Society

19.Vishnuh-Society

The so-called prominent people are in everyday life of the opinion that they are superior to the other by their legal position. These allow themselves to order, reprimand, or accuse others, by their self-confidential laws and rules, and should therefore be replaced. And if this does not go well, then badly, because they regularly abuse their dominant position unpunished. In due course, they must understand that many do not just let their action go about it, even though the despair of the oppressed is not noticeable to the oppressor.

Thus, says the Vishnuh doctrine:

---

Non-Religious Society

20.Vishnuh-Society

---

"If the enemy is mad, you must be crazier than your enemy. Whoever wants to survive in a world where disturbed people live must behave in such a way that the crazy majority will not fool you."

... Anyone who wants to survive in a society where madness prevails in case of injustice by the fool must act resolutely against this and have no pardon against madness.

... We know from experience that he who believes in the devil and God, and with the spoonful of nonsensical things is potted is usually evil, sneaky, and unreliable as the plague. And anyone who deals with pitch becomes infected with it, then self-esteem dies out."

Everyone must know his place in this world and realize that every human being is central. Whoever does not respect his fellow human beings must also be punished, according to his scriptural interpretations, because the Bible says,

21.Vishnuh-Society

"who loves his fellow man must not save the rod, (Proverbs 13:24.)" So religious humanity loves other believers by not paying any respect. Do not have respect for the other, mean to love? So, what applies to the one is also applicable to the inventor and its supporters. Then other thinking people may unleash religious humanity according to "Proverbs 13:24."

.... The same applies to the inventor and its supporters. If the government and the related agencies may punish the citizen for reasonable debt, the citizen also allows this.

... Citizens also have the right under reasonable debt not to save the government the rod, and the related agencies, immunity loses its value. Right for one, right for all. So not only in words, in writing, or in imagination, but also physically.

.... A child is often corrected with a correction of the knee, but also the adult must also believe in it according to the person's Bible. This is the will of their God. And since believers are all goddesses, they should also follow the path of their Scriptural God, "who loves his children" does not

22.Vishnuh-Society

save the rod. "This means believers may hurt and slaughter each other on behalf of their God.

... Read from this the so-called holy books of all world religions. For example, in the Bible, see Proverbs 13:24, which is inspired by everything that faithful humanity does not adhere to and never has ever loved. And because the believers never gave a good example, except when it was in their own street, they all fall into repetition and eventually end in their Hell, and heaven, which does not exist, is a lost place for them.

And since there is no Scriptural God, someone will have to play for Scriptural God so that the texts in the Bible fulfill the purpose of protecting innocent humanity.

... This will bring peace to earth in which everyone will live in peace with each other. This can be conducted through the mediation of an independent non-religious body of natural people who has the task of conducting the verses contained in the Bible on the followers of the inventors of the scriptures, "these are the evil believers", in favor of everyone.

24.Vishnuh-Society

The non-existent God/ Allah is a man, according to the Bible/ Qur'an and other so-called holy books.

But what is true about this?

The Bible, the Koran, and other so-called holy books treat women as rightless, unclean and backward beings.

... But given the evolution theory, this can not be true.

That the so-called holy books are written by men is a clear thing, but that gives the man no right to position the woman as an inferior being and subordinate to another.

The humiliations mentioned in the books of God concerning the woman emphasizes the fact that the so-called holy books are of no value and that the man has devised the god concept for their own benefit and for the humiliation of the other.

Non-Religious Society

25.Vishnuh-Society

---

Thus, says the teaching of Vishnuh:

"The most powerful being on earth is the woman because the woman can create life from her body.

... When life arose, the female gender was there first, but the man was not there yet.

... At the time the female sex had another natural possibility to multiply living beings, just like the snail-like being, which can be masculine and feminine at the same time.

... When the male sex had no right to exist, the female sex did exactly what nature expected from her regarding multiplication with the facts through the play of nature.

26.Vishnuh-Society

---

... The truth is, that the man was born of the woman.

... Without the female gender, the male sex would not be there now.

... That is how it went, but not as the world religions have allowed humankind to believe so far, and still continues with their Adam & Eve absurdity."

---

... It is basically a great shame that people of different sexual orientations (B.T.L.G.) are portrayed in almost all so-called sacred books as inferior, dirty, and unworthy.

... However, most of the discriminated counterparts, unfortunately, have no self-esteem and also have no respect for themselves, because in self-salvation, the humiliations by another, and the Bible, they allow themselves to be religious.

Non-Religious Society

27.Vishnuh-Society

... They are submissive to a religion that disdains them. This can be clearly seen in the Biblical passages in which they were portrayed as sex objects, seductresses, conspirators, deceivers, betrayers, liars contemptible, filthy, contagious, and unjust.

... The Vishnuh Society respects every right-minded person like no other, but rightly places a marginal note on all the groups that adore a religion, while they are humbled by the so-called sacred scriptures and are portrayed as unclean and inferior beings ...

... Those who are aware of this problem, but nonetheless take the word of the Bible as true, are regarded by the Vishnuh Society as the most contemptible people one should never trust, except for the minor beings and those who are family-bound or environment-related or in any other way can not distance themselves from the yoke.

... This type of religious people who may not be accepted according to the so-called holy

Non-Religious Society

28.Vishnuh-Society

scriptures is very dangerous because the majority will also do everything to be accepted...

... The Vishnuh Society speaks from experience and knows that these kinds of believers are usually unscrupulous and can walk about corpses to reach their intended goals.

... This is because this kind of discriminated people do not know and have not learned self-respect and often from a hidden vengeance strive to humiliate fellow humans as it happens to them through the sacred books written by people.

Thus, says the teaching of Vishnuh:

"Those who do not know self-respect will not be able to respect another and those who have no self-esteem can not value another person nor value anything."

So, someone who does not respect himself is unable to respect fellow human beings because

Non-Religious Society

29.Vishnuh-Society

the disrespectful person can not sense what respect is and what respect means.

... Especially in this kind of people, one has to be mindful of social danger, since their behavior is similar to the behavior of the former treacherous Surinamese slaves, who, in order to divert attention away from themselves, did everything to be loved by their slave driver.

... They acted as a telltale for when their species wanted to flee from the plantations or did something that was forbidden for a slave at the time by colonial Christian rule.

... These black traitors were also the merciless executioners.

... They were used to punish runaway male and female slaves by torture, ill-treatment, and rape, and this in the cruelest ways one can imagine.

... These bloodhounds in human form did their torture with unprecedented sadism to please their masters.

Non-Religious Society

30.Vishnuh-Society

... But the zeal on which they proceeded did not change anything in their inferior position, for in spite of their service they were most despised by the other slaves and regarded by their Christian masters as the worst scum of slavery.

... Later, these slave traitors underwent the same fate as they had thought and done to their own kind.

... Their Christian masters were also ruthless in God's name.

Not every suspect has admitted to the behavior described above, but most of them do.

The progeny who feel addressed by this message should take it at face value. They must confront the legacy they inherit, acknowledging the complex and often painful history that shapes their present. The science that could trace these issues back to the descendants of former traitors, who either committed or resisted acts of treason, is elusive and cannot be precisely retrieved in our times. This makes the understanding of such historical intricacies even more challenging.

Non-Religious Society

31.Vishnuh-Society

Nevertheless, the truth remains difficult to hear, especially for those who prefer to turn a deaf ear to the harsh realities of slavery and its enduring impact. Many would rather remain ignorant of the atrocities and injustices that their ancestors either endured or perpetrated. This willful ignorance only perpetuates the cycle of suffering and impedes progress toward reconciliation and healing.

The history of slavery is not just a distant past but a shadow that lingers over the present, affecting societal structures and individual lives.

Addressing it requires a willingness to listen, to learn, and to empathize with the experiences of those who were oppressed. It also calls for a collective effort to dismantle the remnants of these injustices that persist today.

For those who would rather not hear the uncomfortable truths, it is crucial to recognize that true progress can only come from facing these realities head-on. Ignoring or denying the past does not erase its effects; it only ensures that the wounds remain unhealed.

*"Those who do not respect themselves do not know what respect is and will

No matter what efforts these marginalized individuals make to gain acceptance from others, they will always feel the bitterness of rejection in a world where they believe they belong.

This is due to the inherent hypocrisy within religious communities, where passages in their sacred texts perpetuate the humiliation and contempt of such people. These passages will persist as the word of their God, repeatedly invoked with impunity by those claiming divine authority. God or Allah, as usual, will seemingly endorse this indefinitely.

... Today, hypocritical religious preachers within the Christian faith preach a moderated and adapted religious doctrine solely to salvage the church from collapse.

Non-Religious Society

34. Vishnuh-Society

They claim to embrace the salt of the earth under pressure from their congregations, diverging from their doctrinal teachings. However, individuals raised under the influence of God's faith fail to recognize that a morally questionable text like the Bible cannot inherently bring peace or transformative change to their lives.

... Many are eager to recognize the love of the mass murderer, their Lord god up there.

Thus, says the teaching of Vishnuh:

"The goodness is praised but dies a bitter death, because goodness is deceived by the appearance of badness."

---

Moreover, these biblical interpretations are embraced despite historical evidence portraying Jesus as a figure similar to Robin Hood in his time – a champion of the marginalized and a critic of oppressive religious and governmental powers.

35.Vishnuh-Society

His execution was orchestrated by a jealous alliance of religious and political authorities who viewed him as a threat to their control and influence. This historical perspective challenges the traditional narrative of Jesus as solely a divine figure offering salvation.

... Jesus pointed out to the poor civilian people their rights, self-esteem, and self-respect because at the time the poor people were being horribly exploited by the religious majority.

The religious curse that rests on Christianity always exerts heavy pressure on their lives, as a result of which the religious repeatedly fall in opposition to oppression, genocide, and widespread human rights violations in the name of their evil invention, God.

... This fact applies to all religions.

People never forget that the disputed passages in the Bible/ Koran / Torah and other religious books remain in force at all times until they have been removed.

Non-Religious Society

36.Vishnuh-Society

... As long as the non-existent God/ Allah does not let the texts of humiliation and oppression against humanity be removed from the so-called holy scriptures, the groups of people who are considered inferior, unjust, and unclean, are doomed as the salt of the earth until the eternity.

Those who believe in God / Allah and value the malicious fairy tales of the Bible / Quran / Torah, Bhagavad-Gita, etc., must indeed take into account the inhuman texts contained in the sacred scriptures which means that their lives for God are worth nothing.

The current moderation preached by Christian leaders, juxtaposed with their condemnation of women in general, homosexual individuals, lesbian women, transgenders, and others marginalized by God's faith, serves as a smokescreen designed to deceive people and profit from them under the guise of religious coercion: "Accept our teachings or face eternal damnation in Hell."

This sentiment is not exclusive to Islam but is also prevalent in Christianity and other religions. It

Non-Religious Society

37.Vishnuh-Society

reflects a widespread belief system that uses fear and manipulation to control adherents.

Sometimes, speaking the truth can be uncomfortable, but it is necessary for someone to challenge the veil of false tact and humanity that conceals the truth, keeping people ignorant and insecure.

Those who, according to the Bible or Quran, are condemned by God or Allah and portrayed as inferior and devoid of rights, yet continue to cling to their faith, are depicted as weak-minded individuals lacking self-respect and self-esteem.

They will persist as the downtrodden and inferior, enduring humiliation and remaining the scapegoats of society until their death. According to the beliefs of God, the Bible, or the Quran, they are deemed as intended: despicable beings unworthy of dignity.

This type of individual presents themselves as prey to followers of God, Allah, the Bible, the Quran, and other so-called holy books, and therefore, according to these beliefs, has no right to complain or speak out. They endure being treated like dirt, subjected to abuse, violence,

Non-Religious Society

38.Vishnuh-Society

curses, and oppression. By adhering to religions that deem them as worthless and disposable creatures, they have accepted this fate where anyone can mistreat them at will, all in the name of Allah or God.

Even though these individuals may fervently worship and submit to God, Allah, or any deity, they are not loved but rather despised for eternity according to these religious texts. All of this is documented in the so-called holy scriptures, and once written, it is considered immutable.

.... Women and all those labeled as inferior beings in the Bible, Quran, and other holy books are unjustly branded as despicable and unworthy. According to these scriptures, they are not considered children of God and are condemned to be the salt of the earth – individuals whom others are permitted to mistreat at will in the name of the same God or Allah whom they fervently worship.

I have no sympathy for these regressive individuals. They are essentially engaging in a form of sadomasochism, deriving either conscious or unconscious pleasure from enduring pain.

Non-Religious Society

39.Vishnuh-Society

These individuals, labeled as inferior and despicable in the Bible, Quran, and other holy texts, are unjustly relegated to a status where they are seen as unworthy and beneath others.

According to these scriptures, they are not considered children of God and are condemned to remain the scapegoats of society – subject to mistreatment and abuse under the guise of religious sanction.

I feel no pity for these individuals who willingly subject themselves to such backward ideologies. They effectively engage in a form of sadomasochism, deriving either conscious or unconscious pleasure from enduring pain and degradation inflicted upon them by those who claim to act in the name of God or Allah.

Furthermore, I can not respect this kind of people either, because how should I respect someone who is resigned to the misery that is inflicted on them by the other and let everything happen as in a movie, and then with angelic voice saying, "if God willing" or "it is God's will"? How ridiculous can someone be??

Non-Religious Society

40.Vishnuh-Society

This kind of believing people do not set a good example for their progeny, but they stimulate other weak-headed people and innocent humanity to self-destruction and self-abasement as if this kind of people has no right to exist and is doomed to trample and serve as a footmath.

... Furthermore, the preachers and religious educators who profess to be moderate and accommodating towards the marginalized within their congregations and circles, purportedly to salvage the church's reputation and garner favor among the vulnerable, will also face condemnation in the supposed afterlife. Just as harboring a criminal or fugitive is punishable under the law, these individuals will be judged by their own religious doctrines for their actions.

... That's why I rightly call this kind of gullible people that despised and considered worthless by God/ Allah according to the Quran/ Bible/ sacred script and what is more, as the worst kind of human beings that has no self-respect or self-esteem and thus is unreliable in dealing with fellow human beings that can never make a value judgment about everything that nature has in its bosom.

However, history has shown and until now that God / Allah, * this is actually the evil religious humanity *, is not merciful, but unrelenting, inhuman, and evil as the plague.

... Just look at the world around you and find out that God/ Allah is only a fiction of evil people who have created a religious doctrine in order to condone their crimes against humanity.

... Meanwhile, there are hundreds of gods and goddesses to whom one can pray, but there is not one who answers.

Despite all the badness promoted by the Bible and other religious books, I want to reassure the religious man by saying that not everything in the Bible, the Thora, the Qoran, and the Bhagavad-Gita are wrong, but "only the page numbering is correct, and the used paper is of sublime quality."

Those who love nature should recognize that each person is unique. Demonstrate contentment,
