Inspired by my travels and by the people on my road here and there, and..... you!

“Just me”

Let me be your work
so I will get the
eight hours
of your presence.
The day you share with others others who got into our lives.

I don't know what they look like fat, tall, short or old.
Is it me
you're thinking of
in my absence.

Too hard to believe
with the few words
they have left us with to share.

“I couldn’t forget”

You made love to me
I couldn’t forget you
though
I didn’t remember your face afraid to be too late to tell you
feeling your love
flowing inside me
I forgot the words to say.
