

Hey there, little trier
I'll see you when the sun shines brighter
You're so far ahead
And I take tiny steps
But I'll hold your hand when I get there
Maybe it's amazing
Or maybe it's nothing more than a thunderstorm
And these clouds move very fast
They take days and weeks and years
But there's no beauty without fears
Grey hairs don't just disappear
There's just no way to know what life will throw at you
You're trying very hard
I just want to know everything
So I call upon the birds of life
Let them sit on your shoulders
They'll bring you love and wisdom as you get older
They're an image of you
Winged stars like marbles in the sky
Always moving through space and time
The dark sky is telling me it's time
I don't want to close my eyes
Sleep will take me away from this world
I know I'll wake up again
But the beauty of what I can see
It won't suffice to dream it
I want to see it
So I'll look for you in the morning

We were always meant to face destruction.
With every word a heart-felt eruption.
But the evenings alone bring the afterthoughts.
Everyday a soul is born.
Only to disappear.
You got to live to die, dear.
And while we're growing up.
We watch it all burn down.
I've come to find that's why we are here.
With every second forward you find false solutions.
You bend your space and mind to feed into your delusion.
It's crumbling down.
The sanity within is bound to implosion.
Your vanity reaches in, your opaque skin shows the corrosion.
I know that the poison affecting you makes you think you're in the right.
We've come to fall in love.
And we've come to fall out.
You've got to live to die, dear.
We reach for mountain tops.
Only to crumble down.
I've come to find that's why we are here.

I keep you right here.
Somewhere private.
Like a shadow.
Of what used to be.
I keep you right here.
Where the line is.
That divides my dreams from reality.
I keep you right here.
At my fingers.
On the surface.
Can't get it out of my head.
I keep you right here.
My friend, my guide.
Teach me lessons.
I can use in life.
I keep you right here.
Close in my mind.
I couldn't change things.
I'm sorry to waste your time.
I keep you right here.
So I won't lose you.
There's a mist outside.
I don't know what to do.
I keep you right here.
Where the moon is blue.
With these empty arms.
That used to hold you.
