MIND

Where thoughts fall deep, and memories run high.

For you ♥

Hi there,

Walk inside, step a little closer,
reach deeper into your consciousness, open the gates of truth,
what will you find, my dear?

You will find meaningful moments, a place where your intentions are clear, there is no better place than going back to your own roots, deep down,
into the heart space of truth, it's safe and secure, you will find love and more things, for sure, but you need to deal with the truth,

my dear,
to open up the real you,
my dear,

to be honest and clear, through mind and heart
while being in this whole spiritual atmosphere,

and so, we start at nightfall, where thoughts fall deep and memories run high,
let's read some stories about the way of life.

I do not write
to be seen,
I write to be heard from a sound people
don't talk about

WRDS by ANASTASIA
P E T R U

...a sound deeper than just words
flying into the air,
meaningless talks,
crazy 'ego' words
coming out of
people's mouth,

I do not write
to be seen,
I write to be heard
from a sound,
a sound of people's vulnerability,
a sound that lasts forever,
because words fade away, eyes can get lost, but the soul stays present. ✨
