

OKSANA OOMS

OKSANA OOMS

IMPORTANT WORDS OF FATHER TO SON

2022

DAY ONE

If you knew how I was waiting for you!
You are my most precious treasure.
I was so proud and delighted when I found out that you came to our family.
"All men want a son" - believe me, this phrase means nothing in comparison with what these men feel when they get a son.
I've taken you in my arms and grown physically, morally, and mentally ten times.
To hold such a treasure in my arms!
That's how much strength you need to have!
That's how many peaks you need to conquer to become worthy of you!
I will proudly carry the title of the father,
I'll develop myself to be worthy of such a high rank.
I'll become such a father that you
can be proud of me.
Not just of having a daddy, but of the quality of my fatherhood.
Being a father is incredibly deep and permanent work.
I won't let you down.
I love you forever.

DAY TWO

Love your family.

We are not a single unit in physical terms.

But we are a single entity in terms of overlapping our ethereal fields.

We expand and immerse family members under our mental wing, that's what it sounds like.
Because for all worlds we are a single whole.

How much care, affection, attention,
understanding, kindness to each other,
and warm thoughts about each other we invest into each other - so much we are humans, so much so that our common ethereal field will be stronger and tougher.

So much our defense will be strengthened.

So much we will surprise these words with our fortitude. Let's conclude.

Care. Gentle and warm attitude.

Delicate thoughts about each other.

That is what we are made of.

