For my lovely daughters.

Mo comes from the Indian Ocean and is an adventurous little red fish.

A graceful fish.

A strong fish.

A creative fish.

And Mo loves taking you, the curious reader, along on her journey.

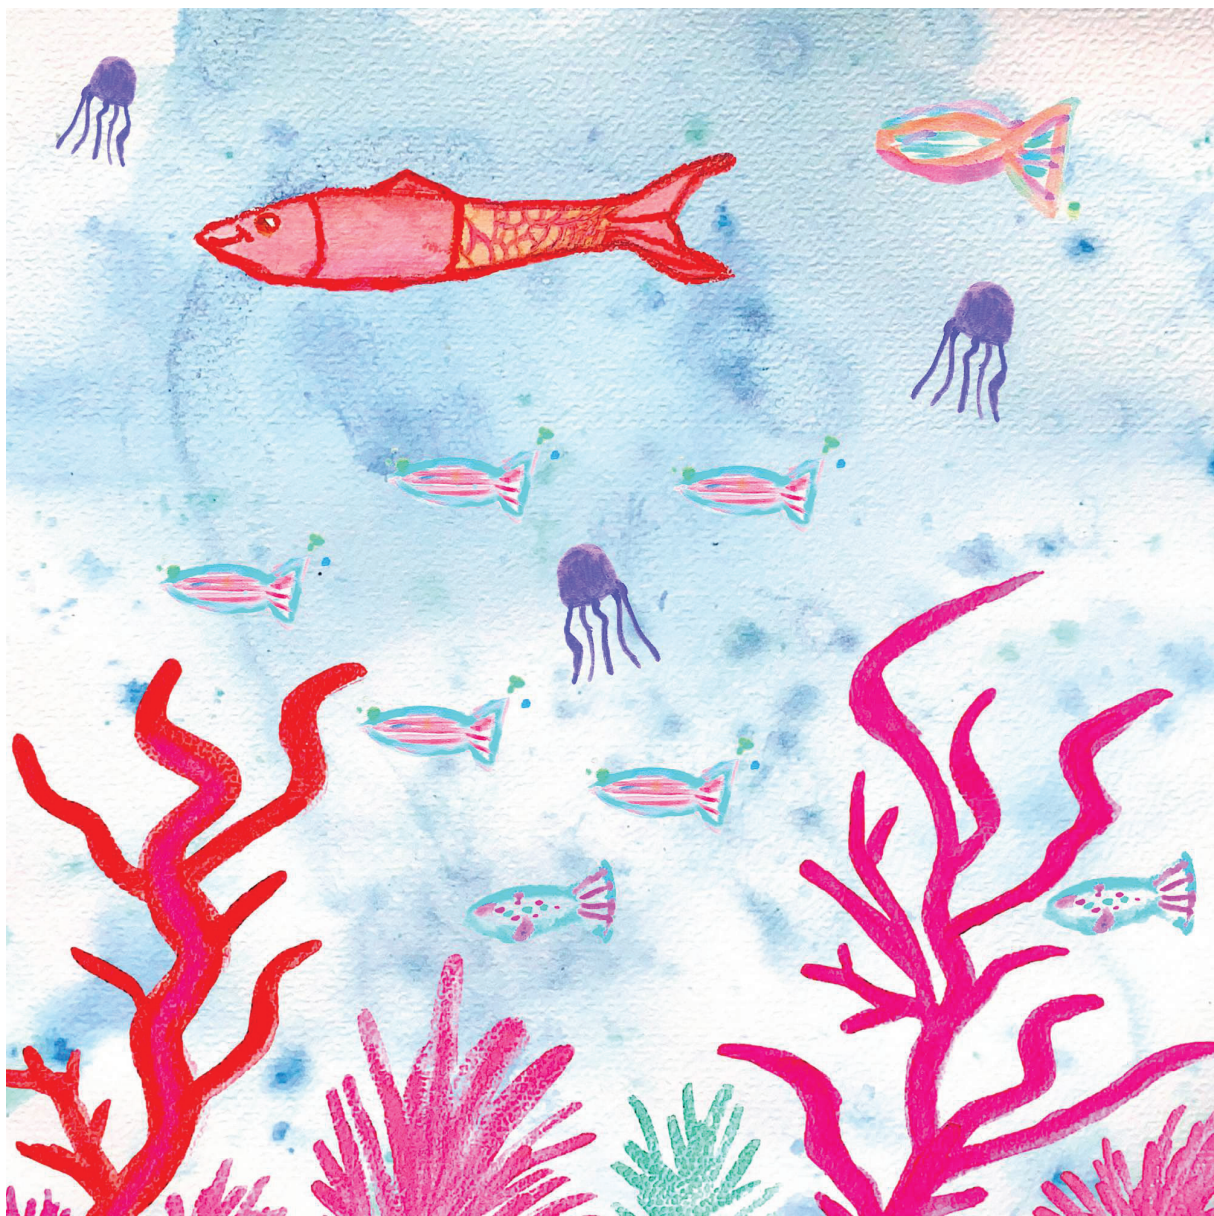

She's a true world traveler, always eager to explore.

Discovering charming places, and making wonderful friends for life.

Psssstt...

Take a peek at the world map every now and then.

You'll find it on page 75.

I'm going to tell you all about the adventures Mo has on her way to a beautiful place where she truly belongs. A place where she feels welcome, and simply happy.

A place where she meets new friends and can play as much as she likes.

Where the sounds are different, the food is different, the scents are different, the music is different.

And through it all... she stays curious.
