From the Editor

It is with great pleasure that Ars Aequi Libri presents the fourth edition of the Wetseditie Arbitration.

This collection of laws and regulations aims to bring together the most relevant national and international laws and regulations in the field of arbitration. The selection of the first edition of this book was made by the distinguished prof. dr. P. Sanders, who sadly passed away in 2012.

This edition includes the most recent arbitration rules. All texts are current as of July 2018. This edition has been extended to include a broad selection of international arbitration rules and aims to provide a basis for the comparative study of arbitration law. For the purpose of legal education in English, the present edition also includes English translations of the relevant Dutch laws and regulations.

A special word of thanks goes out to NautaDutilh's arbitration team for the valuable contribution to this edition.
