

He puts sunflower seeds in the ground because it's spring.
That's the time to sow and plant.
Look, the crocuses are already opening their leaves.

What else is there to see in spring?

Worm is at work in his garden. Hi, Worm!

Worm goes out to investigate.

Hey, what's lying in that nest?
It's three little bird eggs!
A lot is happening on the ground and in the water, too.
How many ducklings can you count?
