

"And the winner is . . .
Wizard Lemosá Hopes Mandrake!"
Wizard proudly steps forward to accept his prize. Another medal!

And now, after all the hard work for the show – the endless practicing, the many preparations – it's time to go home to resume his normal life. Wizard makes himself comfortable in the car and quickly falls asleep.

When they get to his house, Wizard immediately jumps out of the car. With his coat still neatly groomed, he dives straight into the trash can. He's so hungry! Smack, smack!

After playing with the garden hose, it's time for a nap. Wizard walks inside and flops into his basket.

Then he sees his friend Squirrel. He chases him around the yard. Yippee!
