

Fall is here. The rain is coming down in big drops.
Mouse and Raccoon want to sail a little toy boat in a big puddle, but the boat doesn't seem to want to move.

Shall we help?
Tilt the book to the right,
and then turn the page.

Well done!

The boat is moving very fast now.
Raccoon and Mouse can hardly keep up.

Someone is hiding behind a tree.
“Peekaboo, Fox. Will you play with us?”
Mouse and Raccoon ask.
