

Lots of boys and girls think soccer is really cool. They can play soccer for fun or on a school team. Grown-up soccer players who are very good can play soccer for their job. Each player has an important role, but the dream of all soccer players is for their team to win the championship and get a trophy.

Soccer players wear a soccer jersey and shorts with their team colors. On the back of their jersey are their name and player number. They wear shin guards under their long soccer socks to protect their legs against hard kicks. On their feet, soccer players wear cleats with long studs, so they don't slip. They also have a tracksuit and a raincoat.
