

Today is a very special day:

IT'S SPRING!

The air smells like flowers and everything sparkles with fresh colors.

Our friends can't wait for their spring party,
but they still have a few things to gather . . .
Let's go to the spring market!

Gami carries a big basket.

Coco is a little clumsy.

Otto thinks about nothing but food.

Rafi loves playing tricks.

And Theo? He's scared
of his own shadow.

They each want to find something special at the market.

WILL YOU HELP THEM?

Start searching!

- hat
- cart
- plant
- glove
- muffin
- watering can
- trowel

Yay, they're here! It's so busy today. It's like everybody's at the market. By the entrance are stalls full of spring flowers, plants, and gardening tools. Those flower garlands are perfect for the party! Gami picks out the prettiest garland in the brightest colors. And the other friends? What are they up to?
