

Little Tractor lives on Big Oak Farm.
Lili the trailer is his best friend.
He has lots of animal friends, too:
Laura the duck, Leo the pig, Jules the dog,
Annette the chicken, and Anton the horse.

It's hardly rained at all these past few months.
That's why Little Tractor and his friends are bringing water to the cows today.

First, Little Tractor stops at the pasture where Hannah is standing. “Just look at this,” sighs the spotted cow. “There’s nothing left in my pasture to eat or drink . . .”
“We have to do something about that, Little Tractor,” says Leo. “I have an idea,” Little Tractor replies. “We’ll take you to a pasture where tender grass is still growing.”
“And we’ll give you water there too,” Leo adds.
